CAPONE CALMLY AWAITS HIS FATE

Government Counsel Scathingly Denounces "King Of Gunmen"

(International News Service)

FEDERAL BUILDING, CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The case of United States Government against Al Capone, Chicago's "Public Enemy Number One," for fraudulent evasion of income tax entered its final phase today when Federal District Attorney George E. Q. Johnson delivered the prosecution's concluding argument. This was to be followed by the judge's instructions, after which the case will go to the jury.

Capone "dressed to kill" freshly barbered and manicured, leaned back in a swivel chair and listened intently to Johnson's oration.

"The United States government has no more important laws to enforce than the revenue laws. Thousands upon thousands of persons go to work daily and all of them who earn more than $1,500 a year must pay income tax" Johnson declared.

"If the time ever comes when the

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Increased building operations are looming ahead for New Castle, when the necessary preliminaries are disposed of. The new postoffice will be quite a contract, while the state armory now announced for the city will be a nice building contract. The station project in the Seventh ward, delayed because of the necessity of a decision by the State Public Service commission, will also provide some building construction activity.

Pa Newc observed that overcoats and topcoats were almost standard articles of wearing apparel today, as the weather turned colder. Many of the folks who attended the football game last night sat huddled up in blankets.

Motorists should take precaution today, as the streets are wet and in addition, covered with leaves. The combination makes a bad traffic hazard.

The crowd at last night's football game just couldn't fashion sitting down on the rain-soaked bleacher seats, so some spectators witnessed the play standing. Others more interested in resting every now and then, found provisions for keeping dry long before the game had gone far.

Avenue Eyelights: Man, alighting this morning from a car bearing a California tag, shivering somewhat from the cool wind . . . Group of high school leather-lungs keeping up a roaring victory demonstration downtown last night . . . Boy Scouts, in uniform, probably entrants in today's outdoor meet . . . And a man glancing over a pocket calendar at the street in quest of the Hallowe'en day.

It is an accepted fact that a motorist, whose car has been bumped by a car from the rear, should thrust out his jaw, draw his eyebrows together, double up his fists and go to battle. But last evening Pa Newc

Fear Death Of Edison Only Matter Of Hours

(International News Service)

WEST ORANGE, N. J., Oct. 17.—Thomas A. Edison continued in a coma today and death was believed to be only a matter of hours.

Unable to take either fluid or food to combat the poisons which are ravaging his weakened body, the inventor continued to lose ground in his long and valiant battle for life.

A statement signed by his physician, Dr. Hubert S. Howe, this morning, said that he had remained all night in a condition which had all the appearances of a normal sleep. He was breathing quietly, Dr. Howe said, but his pulse was poor. Dr. Howe remained at the inventor's home last night and planned to stay there today.

The announcement that the 84-year-old inventor was sleeping quietly and breathing easily was discounted by the fact that his physician was unwilling to leave his bedside even for an hour.

Edison has had no food since

Descendant Of English Earl Who Fought Washington, Unveils Memorial Tablet

Celebration Is Continued Today—Many Notables Are Attending Anniversary

(International News Service)

YORKTOWN, Va., Oct. 17—The sun flashed out of the broad sweep of the York River here today and called to action the illustrious sons of France, England and America: the governors of the thirteen original states or their representatives, who awoke to continue their part in the celebration of the 150th anniversary celebration of the battle which made the colonies free.

Lord Cornwallis, descendant of the English Earl, found himself most popular overnight, following his speech yesterday at the dedication of a memorial to his ill fated ancestor.

Animosity Forgotten

"War is behind, peace is in front, we hope for ever more," he declared.

It had been intimated he would find some delicacy in taking part in the exercises.

"I assure you such delicacy never crossed my mind" he said. "Forty-eight hours after Yorktown, General Washington entertained Lord Cornwallis, and from that moment all animosity was forgotten."

Two French cruisers rode at anchor out in the broad river along with American battleships, cruisers and destroyers. This presentation, made by Benjamin N. Johnson, president general of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution marked the opening of today's program, the second of the four day services. It was accepted by Mrs. George D.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 17.—Russell T. Sherwood, wanted for questioning by a New York state legislative investigating committee concerning his activities as financial agent for Mayor James J. Walker of New York City, resisted all efforts today to question him concerning his connections with Walker or to state whether he would respond to a subpoena issued by the committee.

"I am here on a honeymoon," Sherwood told International News Service," and outside of that, have no particular reason for remaining away from New York. I don't know how long we will remain here, but my wife and myself like the scenery, and there are still a lot of things we want to see."

General Drive For Chest Will Open On Monday

Team Captains And Workers Will Gather At Noon In Y. W. C. A.

FIRST REPORTS TO BE MADE TUESDAY

All is in readiness for the opening of the 1931 Community Chest Drive, which will get under way Monday, with a noon luncheon in the Y. W. C. A.

Team captains and workers will meet at this time for instruction and a list of the prospective contributors they are to solicit. The report of the advanced gifts will also be made at this time, and those which have been given by classes of contribution will be assigned to the various organizations.

Whirlwind Campaign

It is hoped to have a whirlwind campaign and to be able to reach the goal of $50,000 before the week is over. This will depend in a large measure on the team workers, but the teams have been augmented this year by additional people, and should result in the task being accomplished more speedily.

The Advanced Gift workers have been courteously received and Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, president of the Chest and Dr. C. J. Williamson, chairman of the campaign this year, as that the workers be accorded every courtesy next week when they come around in their annual appeal.

The citizens are asked to bear in mind that these people are contributing their time free of charge, that they are paying out of their own pockets for their meals at the noon luncheons, and are themselves, giving their contributions to the cause.

Akron Dirigible Flies West As Far As St. Louis, Is Heading Homeward

FINAL TEST FOR GIANT AIRSHIP

(International News Service)

AKRON, Ohio, Oct. 17.—Flying lazily through the night at a low altitude, the U. S. S. Akron, world's largest airship, passed over Springfield, Ill., at 4 o'clock this morning, a radio report from the giant craft to her airdock here said.

The aerial Leviathan was headed north, presumably enroute to Chicago on her 48-hour endurance flight, the ninth and last test voyage. It was believed Skipper Charles E. Rosendahl was following the air-mail route from St. Louis to Chicago. The ship visited St. Louis shortly after midnight today.

Everything on board the airship was all right, the message said.

The Akron left her airdock here yesterday morning at 6:50 a. m. on her endurance voyage which is to last at least two days. She visited Columbus, Dayton and Cincinnati and then headed into Kentucky. She swung around and headed back up north to St. Louis last night.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The U. S. S. Akron, leviathan of the skies, soaring homeward from a trip to Omaha passed over Chicago this morning, thrilling work-bound thousands.

Long And Aldrich Present Views On Governor Conflict

Governor Huey P. Long, Earnestly Believes That He Is Still State's Executive

Shreveport Candidate Walter L. Aldrich, Claims Long Is Now U. S. Senator

By HUEY P. LONG
(Copyright, 1931, by International News Service.)

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 17.—Inasmuch as it is only three months until an election is to be held in Louisiana, the comedy of having the lieutenant-governor declare himself governor can be regarded as a mere political fiasco, and nothing more. If he were entitled to be governor because of my election to the United States senate, he had the right to take office on the 4th day of March of this year. If anyone thought he had such a right, why have they waited seven months for him to take the oath of office?

We had a meeting of the legislature of the state several weeks ago, and the lieutenant-governor presided over the senate and acted as lieutenant-governor at that session of the legislature.

No New Matter.

This is no new matter—that is, it is not new for a governor who is elected to the United States senate to serve out his term as governor before taking his position as United States senator.

The constitution and the statutes of the United States require that before anyone can be qualified as a congressman or United States senator his credentials must first be accepted in the house or senate and he must be administered the oath of office before even undertaking to take his seat.

When I became a candidate for United States senator in July, 1930, I broadcast a statement that I would not take the oath of office until I had served my full term as governor of the state.

That was one of the leading arguments used by the lieutenant-governor and by all of my enemies and the newspaper opposing me, all of whom said the seat would be left vacant for some several months by my election.

Long Well Liked.

But the people concluded that a

Three Students Severely Hurt In Auto Crash

Two Young Men And Young Woman, Ohio State Students, Injured Near Toledo

CAR PLUNGES INTO BRIDGE RAILING

(International News Service)

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 17—Three Ohio state university students enroute to the Ohio State-Michigan game at Ann Arbor, were injured, one of them perhaps fatally, when they were thrown into a ditch after their car crashed into a bridge near here today.

The victims of the accident were Ed McQuire, 21, of Cleveland, who sustained a fractured skull and is in a critical condition: Miss Anna Long, of Long Island City, N. Y., and James Foster, 21, Cleveland, who suffered internal injuries and probable broken bones.

All three were rushed to St. Vincent's hospital here for treatment.

The machine in which the three students were riding skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into the iron railing of the bridge, it was said. The occupants were thrown into the ditch while the machine plunged into the creek spanned by the bridge.

Pressure Flooding Operations In Field Proving Notable Success

(International News Service)

KANE, Pa., Oct. 17.—On oil boom that may rival the early excitement in the Kane field was underway here today as pressure flooding began in the Kanesholm area which already has proved successful beyond all expectations of operators.

Two wells are being drilled now and 35 new wells have been sunk in the past year in the Kanesholm area.

The Olean Petroleum Company, headed by Wilson Page, of Olean, N. Y., has expended $250,000 in developing 5,000 acres in the field. The Olean Company has successfully used pressure flooding with its wells averaging more than 20 barrels daily output.

Veterans in this section declare that the 20-barrel daily flow is considered excellent for any section of McKean County. Sands in the Kane area have been found rich in oil and highly adaptable to pressure flooding.

More men are now employed in the Kanesholm area than in many years and oil officials reported that 50 more units of drilling will be put into operation when crude reaches the price of $3 per barrel.

It was said that officials expect to build 25 new dwellings in the little settlement of Kanesholm.

League Is Told China Not Going To Declare War

Delegate To Geneva Is Directed To Notify League Of Decision

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

PEIPING, Oct. 17. — The Chinese Government today instructed Dr. Alfred Sze, its delegate at Geneva, to inform the League of Nations that China does not intend to declare war on Japan but will resist with armed force any further Japanese occupation of Chinese territory.

Dispatches from Nanking, seat of the Nationalist government, reported the instructions had been sent to Dr. Dze because of increasing Japanese military activity in Manchuria. The Japanese apparently mean to "dig in" there for the winter.

Announcement that China does not intend to make war conflicted with the recent speech by President Chiang Kai-Shek, who threatened to go to war with Japan unless China obtained justice. It is believed here the Nationalist government has been advised the reaction to that speech at Geneva was unfortunate and is seeking to correct any impression that may prevail, while the league is negotiating for peace, that China is in a belligerent mood.

State Officers Of Both V. F. W. And Auxiliaries To Attend Rally

Tonight will be a big night for members of the V. F. W. and their auxiliaries, when members of the two organizations from surrounding counties will gather here at a rally staged under the auspices of the Tri-County Council.

In addition to the various musical organizations previously listed, the Franklin bugle and drum corps, forty members strong will be present.

It is expected to have close to 500 visitors from surrounding V. F. W. posts and auxiliaries present at tonight's gathering in the Carnegie auditorium, to which the public is cordially invited.

State officers of both the V. F. W. and the auxiliary will be present, including Department Commander D. J. C. O'Donnell, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Department President Ida May Stanford of the Auxiliary.

The meeting will be preceded by a parade over the downtown business streets, winding up at the Carnegie auditorium. A dance and feed will conclude the evening's program of entertainment.

Storage Place Secured Here

Food Products For Needy To Be Stored On South Jefferson Street

RELIEF AGENCIES TO BE IN CHARGE

A new type of institution, which will have for its object the helping of the needy of this community and the capital stock of which will be food products of various kinds that can be stored and used in feeding those without funds to purchase things they need to eat, was opened up this morning in the former First State Bank building on South Jefferson street.

Its capital stock might be said to be the 100 bushels of turnips that J. K. McQuiddy, chairman of the joint Building Trades Council and Trades and Labor Assembly Relief committee and member of the Salvation Army Advisory board and his coworkers secured from the farm of F. M. Myers of the Liberty Gardens, Grove City, R. D. No. 2 yesterday entirely free of charge.

This institution can properly be designated as the "Rainbow of Helpfulness" in view of the work that it will do here in the coming months. Its directors include William M. White, chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, Ensign V. Thomsen, officer in charge of the Salvation Army, J. K. McQuiddy of the Salvation Army Board, Mayor Relief Committee and Building Trades Council; William Haney, chairman of the Trades and Labor Assembly Relief Committee, William B. Howe, chairman of the Food Committee of the Mayor Relief Committee and others connected with the relief activities of the city.

As the capital stock of this institution, which is backed jointly by the Mayor's Relief Committee and the Salvation Army, will consist of all kinds of vegetables, fruits and things of like nature that can be stored in the bank building against future distribution when needed, all those residents of the city and county, who desire to do so may subscribe to the capital stock at any time and the more they invest, the greater the surplus there will be for the needy people of the community in the coming months.

The use of the building free of charge was secured from the owners, the Standard Life Company of Pittsburgh, through the efforts of William M. White, chairman of the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army and Ensign V. Thomsen, officer in charge and has been granted direct to the Army, but the use will be jointly by the Army and Mayor's Relief Committee.

RELIGIOUS RIOTS IN SPAIN RESULT OF CORTES RULING

169 to 153 only after considerable modification had been made in its original terms.

As finally adopted, the constitutional amendent grants equal rights to men and women in the matter of divorce and makes dissolution of marriage in this country, which for centuries has opposed divorce, virtually as easy as in Mexico and Russia.

"Matrimony," the amendment read, "is founded upon an equality of right for both sexes and can be dissolved for just cause or by mutual consent.

Report Disturbances.

Following adoption of the amendment, 36 basque deputies withdrew from the Cortes, announcing their refusal to participate in discussions of anti-clerical provisions of the new constitution. Together with deputies from the Navarre provinces, they absented themselves during vote on the divorce issue.

Meanwhile, reports were received from various parts of the country indicating a revival of anti-religious disturbances. Attempts were made to burn convents in Bilboa, Saragossa and Oviedo, while serious rioting occurred at Valladolid, resulting in injury to twenty persons.

saw a motorist who responded quite surprisingly. After receiving a shocking bump, he thrust out his head and laughingly yelled—"Ha, ha! I had my brakes on!"

Last night's weather wasn't one bit appetizing for a football game, but not a few people made the remark that only an earthquake could stop them from seeing one of New Castle high's games.

Is there anything that can steal away a man's dignity better than an ugly black and white cat who follows him to work. Pa Newc saw such a scene on North Mercer street early this morning. The man tried to dodge across the street, but the cat patiently followed on his heels. Now we ask you, Emily Post, what do you do in a case like that?

The School Board's action in appointing a constable to guard school property from young rowdies was again justified the other day when two young men were arrested and brought before a local alderman who fined them.

A steady line of traffic can be seen on the New Wilmington to Mercer road these days. The road, just opened several weeks ago, is proving to be a long needed improvement and a great convenience for people traveling between Lawrence and Mercer counties.

Walking Atlantic avenue is a very dangerous practice for people living in that district. They should take care to walk off the main highway because that is one of the most used thoroughfares of the city.

Some New Castle auto owners have already received their 1932 state license plates. One pair of plates that Pa Newc saw carried the number 15380.

Report is made to Pa Newc that the first snow of the fall was evident today. A slight flurry was seen during the morning, it is reported.

The South Side is expected to be jammed with hundreds of local residents on October 29 or 30 when the South Side Board of Trade will sponsor the annual Hallowe'en celebration.

Roads in various sections of the state are still being oiled, according to the detour bulletin of the Pennsylvania State Highway Department for the week ending October 22. The only road in this section which is being treated during the coming week is the one between Foxburg and Emlenton in Butler county. The number of detours is gradually growing less, throughout the state, only 40 being in existence in the entire state. The map is kept posted in the lobby of The News.

shorter term by me was of more value to them than a longer tenure of anyone who would accept the support of such tainted-quality politics as Cyr and his gang espouse in this state.

United States Senator Broussard seems to be the guiding spiritual advisor of the retired tooth chiseler in the modern fiasco. Senator Broussard comes up for election next year, if he has any desire to offer. I predict that he will not offer as a candidate.

Neither Broussard nor Cyr can be elected to justice of the peace in a single ward of any parish in the state of Louisiana today; they not only have put the law under foot, but they have insulted the wishes of the electorate of the state.

I have had constant turmoil with his gang ever since I took office, but we have about fenced them out. They have passed out of the political limelight, never again to return.

Aldrich Speaks.

(Copyright, 1931, by International News Service.)

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 17.—I contend that Governor Huey P. Long became United States senator in March of this year, thereby ending his term as governor of this state.

The failure of Lieutenant-Governor Paul N. Cyr to comply with our constitution by taking the oath of governor within 30 days after the governor's office was vacated, and officially recognizing Long as governor, forfeited any rights he had to the office.

Since the office is vacant it amounts to abandoned property. Anyone under the Louisiana law who is qualified for the office may by taking the oath have possession of the office of governor.

I possess these qualifications.

End Near At Hand

West Orange, N. J., Oct. 17.—The end is near at hand for Thomas A. Edison, his physician, Dr. Hubert S. Howe, said after examining the aged inventor today.

"I consider Mr. Edison now gravely ill," the physician said. This is the first time I have felt definitely the end is approaching. I will stay here until the end comes."

It was expected here that death might come to the world-famous inventor either tonight or tomorrow. All members of his family were either at his home here or within call.

Today's statement by Dr. Howe was the most pessimistic he has yet made and indicated that the 84-year-old patient cannot hold out much longer against the poisons that have permeated his worn out body.

Uremic poisoning, Bright's disease, dubetes and a stomach disorder believed to be gastric ulcers, have gradually sapped his strength and since Sunday morning he has been unable to take any food whatever. Even on Sunday he was able to take only a few spoonfuls of stewed pears.

The aged inventor has thus grown rapidly weaker. On Thursday he lapsed into the dreaded coma which usually precedes death and since then he has been unable to recognize anyone.

May Rush P. R. R. Pymatuning Job

Must Elevate Rails In Section Where Lake Will Eventually Be

No definite time for the start of the relocation and elevation of two miles of Pennsylvania railroad right-of-way just south of Linesville, made necessary by the lake to be created by the construction of the Pymatuning dam, has been learned by Division Engineer J. S. Gillum here.

It is known, however, that a section of the tracks in the low-lying areas must be raised and relocated before the Pymatuning reservoir program is complete.

The tracks will be elevated about a maximum of 12 feet and will be relocation to border the new lake. Two new bridges, one over Shenango creek, another over the Linesville creek, will be erected. Three grade crossings will be eliminated.

Details of the work are being handled at Pittsburgh regional headquarters, although a summary of the plans is expected to reach the division office here shortly.

Holdup Reported At Croton And Mill St.

Young Men Who Ask For Some Tobacco Hold Up Benefactor

Luigi Cannaucci, 512¼ South Jefferson street, was walking along at Croton avenue and South Mill street about seven o'clock last night, when he was accosted by two young men, who asked him for some tobacco.

He was in the act of getting some for them, when one of the young men seized and held him, while the other went through his clothing, taking twenty-five cents in cash and his pay check for $9.60.

LEAGUE IS TOLD CHINA NOT GOING TO DECLARE WAR

America to the Geneva conference table without a unanimous vote in favor of such action.

The government here is in thorough accord with the course of action Kenkichi Yoshizawa, her spokesman before the league, has pursued and has instructed him to continue along the same lines.

Japan apparently does not contemplate drastic action as regards her relations with the league as a result of American participation in the Geneva discussions of her quarrel with China.

Premier Reijiro Wakatsuki said, however, that instructions to press for review of the council's action in seeking American participation have already been forwarded from Tokio to Ambassador Yoshizawa at Geneva.

It was learned officially that Japan will demand an eventual ruling on the question of majority actions in extending the invitation to the United States. In addition, Tokyo will ask what the league proposes to do regarding American participation in the event this majority is found to constitute violation of the league covenant.

Semi-officially, it was stated that "continued employment of expediency" instead of strict adherence to the terms of the covenant might be liable to force reconsideration of Japan's attitude toward the league.

TINY TOTS PARTY AT HIGHLAND CHURCH

The parlors of the Highland United Presbyterian church were turned into nursery rooms Friday afternoon as the tots from the cradle roll department and their mothers were guests of honor at a reception.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with baskets and vases of fall flowers in vivid shades and Mrs. T. J. McFate and her assistant, Mrs. J. W. McCreary were in charge of the event.

The little folks ranged in age from six months to four years and were darling in their dainty frocks and hair bows on the little girls.

A program was presented with Roy Rumbaug giving the opening speech, "We Little Folks"; Betty Homer played a piano number; Dorothy Fehl spoke, "Be Polite"; Donna Lee gave "My Sister"; Arthur Bergland sang "Jesus Loves Me"; Joe Vogan gave "Don't Wake The Baby"; Helen Graham, "Catching a Whale"; Elizabeth Burton gave "Trials"; Betty Jane Kison a piano number; Freddie Llop, a recitation; Mary Butz, "All Upset"; Vivian Gibson, a recitation; Temoy Jane McFate, a reading and the program closed with a duet, "Rally Day" by Dorothy Burton and Betty Reed.

When the program ended the mothers were given names and were to find the person to whom the name belonged, thus accquainting the women with each other.

Then came the big time for the little folks as they were seated at low tables in small chairs and were served with ice cream and "animal" cakes.

The mothers were also served refreshments; those serving were Mrs. W. D. Jones, Mrs. J. G. Blim, Mrs. R. L. Homer, Mrs. F. L. Burton, Mrs. H. S. Kison, and Mrs. W. C. Emery.

P. E. O. SISTERHOOD GUEST FRIDAY NIGHT

Approximately 30 were present, including members and guests, at the meeting of the P. E. O. Sisterhood held at the home of Mrs. Mary Aiken on East street Friday evening.

This occasion marked guest night and the whole affair proved most delightful. After a period of social chat, a program in charge of Miss Ann Rice and her committee was presented.

Those who participated so splendidly included: Miss Ruth Lewis, who gave a vocal solo, "My Lover is a Fisherman"; Miss Iva Mayberry, who entertained with a piano selection, "The Witches Dance" by MacDowell; Mrs. George West, who sang "Drowsily Come the Sheep" and "Tommy Lad"; Miss Joyce Wingerd who gave a group of readings; Mrs. Willaim Mayberry, who sang "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer, and an added attraction was the vocal duet by Mrs. John A. McNeill and Mrs. George Westlake, who sang "Flow Gently Sweet Afton." Accompahists for the evening were Mrs. George Westlake and Miss Mayberry.

At the conclusion of this feature a delicious lunch was served by the refreshment committee, of which Miss Mary Aiken is chairman.

Miss Lillian Parsons of Painesville, O., was the only out of town guest present.

Various bouquets of fall flowers decorated the rooms throughout.

Their next meeting will be held on the coming Friday, October 23, with Mrs. A. E. Michael of Coverts road as hostess.

Nichelson Honored

Glenn A. Nichelson was pleasingly surprised Thursday afternoon when a group of relatives and friends gathered at his home on Garfield avenue for a dinner planned in his honor.

At 6 o'clock the group were ushered into the dining room and given their places about a large table beautifully decorated, and centered with a bowl of dahlias. Here the host's mother, Mrs. C. H. Nichelson was assisted in serving a delicious dinner by Mrs. C. S. Patterson and Mrs. W. G. Stearns. The remaining hours were spent with music, games and social conversation.

The guest list included Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Barnett and son Charles of Evans City, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Swarts of Blairsville, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Onderizk of Strongstown and son Billy, Mrs. Anna Morris, Mrs. Anna Webb, W. W. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Nichelson, Billie, Charles, Herbert and Isabel Nichelson.

Glenn A. Nichelson who has been home on a furlough leaves Sunday morning for the Great Lakes Naval station and then journeys to San Francisco to join the Pacific fleet for a cruise to Honolulu.

M. and K. Class

A missionary class was organized by the People's Mission Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Clarence Samuels, 708 Harbor street, as an honor to Margaret Owrey and Kenneth Johnson, members of the mission who are taking up religious training.

The group held an election of officers and chose Mrs. Harry Shaffer, president: Mrs. Mabel Johnson, vice president: Mrs. Olive Doutt, treasurer, Mrs. Erma Owrey, secretary and Mrs. Clarence Samuels, press reporter.

The third Thursday of each month was selected as the meeting date and the next meeting will be on November 19 with Mrs. Charles Byler, Sampson street.

MASQUERADE PARTY FEATURES EVENING

Witches and goblins and all the other strange characters that infest the country at this time of year, made their appearance Friday evening in the basement of the Highland United Presbyterian church as the members of the Sabbath school assembled for a masquerade party.

Mrs. W. J. Offutt, W. L. Patterson and the members of his class had done preliminary work in the church and the room where the more than 150 assembled certainly carried cut the Hallowe'en idea to the nth degree.

The entertainment committee, E. Grayce Jones, Mrs. C. J. Williamson, Miss Minnie Davidson and Albert Dodds were ably assisted by Ralph Davis in looking after the motley group to see that everybody was kept busy.

As the grand march started there in line were farmers, clowns, pirates, red cross nurses, Pierrots and Pierettes, and most every conceivable kind of costume and flitting back and forth and darting here and yon was the queen of the evening, the old witch, with hair flying and her broomstick in use, and when the grand prize of the evening was awarded to this person, she unmasked and there was Mrs. C. J. Williamson.

About the middle of the evening, the door opened and in came the old Woman from the Shoe, with about thirty children hanging to her skirts and these all lined up and entertained the party with a number of vocal numbers. When the masks were removed it was found the old woman was Mrs. J. F. Replogle, and the children were the members of her junior choir.

The auction, which was presided over by a burly farmer, who turned out to be Dr. C. J. Williamson, created a lot of amusement as the beans piled up, these of course answering for money.

When the group had played all the games arranged and found out who everyone was, then they retired to the "cafeteria" where they were served with a regular Hallowe'en lunch by Mrs. R. D. Rhodes and the members of the cabinet.

SPOON MEMBERS GUESTS AT FIELD CLUB HOUSE

The Luncheon Spoon Club members were guests of Mrs. Carrie Crawford Baldwin Friday afternoon when she entertained at a 1 o'clock luncheon in the New Castle Field Club house marking another of their regular meetings. The guests were given their places at the tables, prettily arranged in tones of the season, where they were served a delectable menu.

The remaining hours were pleasantly spent in a bridge contest.

The club prize was presented to Mrs. John Elder and the guest token was given to Mrs. G. G. Stitzinger.

Announcement regarding their next meeting will be made later.

Honored At Party

Mrs. Ainsley Kelley entertained a group of friends at the H. W. Douglas residence on Reynolds street recently honoring her son Kenneth who is home from Virginia for a brief visit.

Bridge and 500 were pastimes, and prizes were won by Robert Vaughn, Mrs. Eva Scungio, Mrs. Donzella Herman, and Victor DeSico. Music was furnished throughout the evening by William R. Hill.

At the close of the social period, refreshments were served by Mrs. Kelley and her aides, Mrs. H. W. Douglas, Mrs. Donzella Herman, Mrs. Jack Small and Mrs. John Herman.

Mr. Kelley will leave October 26 for Virginia where he will remain indefinitely.

Will Visit Pottery

Members of the Current Events of '23 will go on an inspection tour of the local pottery on Monday afternoon, October 19, which will take the place of their regular meeting.

Those who will participate will note the bus leaves the diamond at 2:15 o'clock. The entire afternoon will be spent at the plant.

Choir 105. O. E. S. Meet

The choir of New Castle, No. 105, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet at the home of Mrs. Carl Turner of 836 Arlington avenue on Monday evening for practice at 8 o'clock.

AFTERNOON PARTY HONORS BIRTHDAY

A delightful party of Friday afternoon was the birthday celebration given by Mrs. F. R. Finch of Fairmont avenue when she entertained a group of little folks in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of her small daughter, Betty Lou. The hours were spent informally with games and contests of various kinds, and at the conclusion of the entertainment, Mrs. Finch served dainty refreshments. Hallowe'en tones predominated in the table and menu appointments, and novelties in keeping with the same idea, added to the gaiety of the affair.

Those who participated were Ann Carroll, Mina Lou Nicholson, Vivian Gibson, Peggy Jane Mayberry, Earl Comstock, Frederick Barkby, Eddie Bush, Billy Samuels, Eugene DeCaprio, Howard Graham, and the honored guest who was the recipient of a number of lovely gifts in memento of the occasion.

MRS. J. R. COOPER LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Associates of the 1914 Book Club were entertained at a prettily appointed one o'clock luncheon in the New Castle Field Club Friday afternoon, with Mrs. Jesse R. Cooper presiding as hostess. A delicious menu was served at the time designated at tables nicely decorated in flowers of the season.

Following the feature tables of bridge occupied the attention of the guests until time to adjourn.

In two weeks the club will be entertained by Mrs. W. G. Campbell at a luncheon.

Party For Classes

Mrs. Scott Ripple and Mrs. Herman Byler were joint hostesses on Friday evening at a Hallowe'en party in the Byler home at the Harbor.

The Sunday school classes of the women were the guests and twenty children, all masked came to the home early in the evening. A grand march featured the early part of the evening after which the children unmasked.

A period of games and Hallowe'en stunts kept the young folks busy for a number of hours, after which the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Caleb Green and Mrs. H. J. Kenehan, served refreshments.

Special guests were Mrs. E. J. Miller, of Cleveland, O., Mr. and Mrs. O. S. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. McCoy and daughter Joan, of Aliquippa, Scott Ripley, James Kenehan and Jack French.

G. T. E. Club.

The G. T. E. club members were most delightfully entertained Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Richardson on Vogan avenue when she entertained informally at their regular meeting. Tables of 500 occupied the attention of the guests during the earlier hours, and tokens for honors were awarded to Mrs. Cecil Logan, Mrs. Joseph Leyde and Mrs. Clarence Welsh at the conclusion of the contest.

At a selected hour an appetizing lunch was served the guests by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Anna Clappie. Fall flowers and novelties in keeping with the season were used in the appointments.

On Wednesday, October 28, the club will be entertained by Mrs. DeRoy Parker at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Boalick, on Spruce street.

Pythian Sisters

The Pythian Sisters met Friday evening in the City Building for their regular session.

Plans were completed for the "kids" party which will be given by the Temple on November 6.

The evening's special prize was awarded Mrs. Rose Tripp.

Mrs. Anna McDonald was appointed chairman of entertainment for the November 6 party and Mrs. Martha Horchler was named as chairman of refreshments.

Attend Convention

Miss Eva Donaldson, Mrs. Frank Andrews, Mrs. Harry Marshall, Sr., Miss Grace Stitzinger, Mrs. Robt. Stitzinger and Mrs. A. R. Shaffer, members of Epworth Methodist church, attended the New Castle district convention of the Foreign Missionary society in Sharon on Thursday.

CLASSES ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY

With Dr. and Mrs. John S. Duncan of Mercer as special guests, the members of the O. C. Orr class and the Men's Bible class of the Reformed Presbyterian church entertained Friday evening at 6:30 with a delicious dinner in the church dining room.

Covers were arranged for 42 and the tables were centered with beautiful large dahlias in many colors. Dr. E. A. Crooks, pastor of the church presided at the dinner.

Concluding the menu the guests then assembled in the auditorium of the church where members of the congregation and friends had gathered to hear Dr. Duncan deliver a lecture on "John Brown." Dr. Duncan has made an intense study of the life of John Brown, and delivered his facts in a most interesting manner.

Celebrate Birthdays

Fred Martin, Lawrence Byler and Mrs. E. M. Byler celebrated the anniversaries of their birth Thursday evening at a six o'clock dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Byler on the Youngstown road.

A large cake in the center of the table was lighted up with candles and fall flowers were used in bud bases at each end.

After a delicious dinner 500 and radio music took up the evening hours.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin and children, Helen Jane, Wilbur and Doris, Martin Reynold, Lawrence Truschel, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Byler and family, Lawrence, Catherine and Mary Theresa.

After a pleasant evening the guests departed for their homes wishing many more such happy events to the honored guests.

Dollar Day Luncheon

The Women's Missionary Society of the Highland United Presbyterian church had their annual Dollar Day luncheon Friday at one o'clock in the dining room of the church, with covers arranged for fifty at long tables suitably decorated in suggestions of Hallowe'en.

A most delicious menu was served after which a business session was called. Mrs. J. B. Love reported $1149 received in the Thank Offering, and there were reports from the various committees, showing the year's work had been most gratifying.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. T. A. Gilkey, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. J. C. Stewart, Mrs. Perry Thomas, Mrs. C. C. Lees, Mrs. Glenn Throop, Mrs. A. C. Allen, Mrs. Clyde Shoaf, Mrs. E. F. Toepfer, and Mrs. A. Welch.

A. F. F. Club Meets

Bridge formed the main pastime for members of the A. F. F. Club Friday evening when they assembled in the home of Mrs. William Bryan on Richelieu avenue for another of their enjoyable social sessions. After play, it was discovered the success awards were won by Mrs. Minnie Dufford and Mrs. Theodore Nelson. Chat and other diversions also filled in the leisure hours.

Later a tempting lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, the Misses Martha and Isabelle Bryan and Betty Armstrong. The menu and table appointments were carried out suggestive of the approaching season.

They departed at a late hour, agreeing to meet again in two weeks with Mrs. George Fisher, Richelieu avenue.

Ritz Club

The Ritz Club met recently with Mrs. Ben Ginucci on Mill street. Bingo was enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. Anthony Panella, Mrs. James Barlett and Mrs. K. Guckert. During the business transactions, Mrs. Frank Mastern and Mrs. K. Guckert were admitted into the club as new members.

At a late hour, a tasty menu was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. James Bongevingo.

X. Y. Z. Luncheon

The X. Y. Z. club members enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. F. R. Wimer on Ray street Friday afternoon when she entertained at their usual social session. All members were present and two guests, namely, Mrs. C. C. Williams and Mrs. Black.

A beautifully appointed 1 o'clock luncheon featured the occasion, and a delicious menu was served at a table cleverly decorated in tones suggestive of the season. Mrs. Black assisted with the serving.

Following, a period of informal diversions brought this enjoyable afternoon to a close. On November 19 the club will be guests of Mrs. C. L. Brenneman, Edgewood avenue.

D. W. T. Club

Mrs. M. P. Boulden of Adams street received the D. W. T. Club associates in her home Friday evening for a social time. The hours were spent informally with radio music and chat, and later, a tasty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Ott and Miss Laura Boulden.

Mrs. Paul Burrows and Miss Boulden were special guests of the evening.

Hallowe'en decorations were used in the menu and house appointments.

Sorosis Changes Place

The Sorosis Club meeting scheduled for Friday will be held at the home of Mrs. T. A. Patterson on Highland avenue instead of with Mrs. W. A. Pond as previously planned.

COEN VISITS TROOP

County Game Protector Frank Coen was a guest speaker Thursday night at the weekely meeting of Elks Troop 5 boys in the Elks home. He spoke on a game conservation subject, and in conclusion thanked the boys for their interest in establishing useful winter feeding stations for birds.

After Mr. Coen's talk the troop patrols went into a huddle. They selected Siver Fox and Flaming Arrow as names for the two patrols.

After the patrol sessions adjourned, announcements of coming events was made. Plans for a Hallowe'en party on October 29 were discussed, and some time was given over to a discussion on ways for bettering the troop.

At next week's meeting the troop will witness motion picture films taken and developed by Scoutmaster Sidney Smith of Troop 15.

Meetings of Troop 5, heretofore two hours long, will be shortened to an hour and a half to afford the boys more time to do their school work.

Reporter, Jim Taylor.

CROTONIANS ELECT

Troop 6, sponsored by the Croton M. E. church, had an election of officers to feature its meeting this week. The outcome is given as follows: Senior patrol leader, Herbert Rodgers; junior assistant scoutmaster, Glenn Peebles; scribe, Joe McMillin, and treasurer, Harold Booth.

The troop plans a Hallowe'en party for the very near future. Scoutmaster George McCracken led the meeting. Scribe, Joe McMillin.

OUR BROTHER'S KEEPER

THIS period through which the world is struggling is more than an economic crisis. It involves more than a study of strategic plans to ambuscade the dollars which fled.

Humanity itself is on trial. The civilization which we have evolved is undergoing the supreme test.

If there is such a thing as brotherhood among men, now is the time to show it.

Drunk with wealth, we have strayed a long way from the fundamental and eternal truth. We have been living in a house stuck upon golden stilts. And it has crashed.

In our agony and suffering we have discovered that Jesus Christ meant what He said. The Golden Rule was not a pleasant homily intended for Reward-of-Merit cards with silk fringe on the edges and diamond dust shining on the snow scenes. It was a simple statement of the Eternal Law...the same law that keeps the stars in the skies and the world turning on its axis.

We speak of breaking the Law and Commandments. You can't break them; but they break you. "Love one another" was more than an admonition to light the path of virtue. It was the statement of an eternal principle upon which all law, all philosophy, all business, all ethics, all civilization rests. Like all the doctrines left by the Christ, this was the sublimity of common sense—the finality of practicality—the only sure foundation upon which civilization can rest.

During these money-glutted years we have tried each to go our own way alone. Years of greed and money lust have ended with this terrible lesson: that wealth evaporates and leaves men stark and with naked hearts.

It is for us to see that this terrible rebuke has not been in vain. For us to see that we rebuild the fallen structure on the rock of brotherhood.

This winter will be a period that calls for all men have of fortitude, strength and sympathy. It is, for once, clear to the dullest mind that we can only help ourselves by helping others.

Out of this period of readjustment we can regain our souls. It can be a better world because of this period of hunger and sorrow; a stronger America and a sounder civilization if it brings to us a realization we are given the privilege of being our brother's keeper.

The remedy for our financial crisis lies not in laws, federal commissions, in panaceas or financial theories.

The sound and practical answer was told two thousand years ago in a sermon spoken on a mountain in Palestine.—Los Angeles Times.

THE EXTRA SESSION

Just how extensive a program of legislation Governor Pinchot plans to include in his call for a special session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly remains to be seen, but it is to be hoped most sincerely that he includes nothing which would prove of sufficient controversial character to require a session of more than a few weeks.

He has said that his only purpose is to put through legislation which will prove beneficial to the unemployed and needy in the coming winter months. Such a program calls for the speedy co-operation of the various factions in both houses.

To attempt to inject into the special session any legislation off this line of endeavor is to invite a crimonious debate and perhaps jeopardize possible unemployment relief. Extended debate means a long session and the longer the session, the more expensive it will be.

Whether or not his proposed "Prosperity Bonds" are constitutional is a legal question not yet decided. Under the peculiar phraseology of our Pennsylvania constitution there is some doubt as to what immediate relief can be accomplished by the General Assembly but in view of the need now prevalent, perhaps the constitution will show a little more elasticity than it has heretofore. Human need transcends constitutional technicality and the people of Pennsylvania are hardly of the kind to refuse to ratify any action taken that will provide immediate relief.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION PROGRESS

Railroad consolidation was one of the major objectives of the transportation law of 1920. The task of regrouping the railroads of the country was assigned to the interstate commerce commission. That body prepared tentatively a comprehensive plan. It was deemed unsatisfactory and carriers thereupon determined to work our substitute suggestions and submit them to the commission for approval.

After years of conference and discussion the eastern railroads have agreed upon a four-system consolidation plan which they ask the commission to sanction. A somewhat premature announcement last December of a similar plan received the cordial approval of President Hoover, but subsequently obstacles were encountered which necessitated further delay.

The final points of difference having been adjusted by compromise, the eastern carriers are anxious to proceed with their plan. Naturally the economic situation has played an important part in inducing them to waive minor objections and make mutual concessions for the sake of the economies and improvements expected to follow judicious consolidation.

The railroad brotherhoods have been in touch with the committees charged with the solution of the problems. Consequently no opposition from them is anticipated.

The agreements outlined, if put into effect, would constitute a long and significant step toward complete railroad consolidation asserts the Chicago News. In the interest of good service and genuine economy the proposed changes should be effected with as much expedition as the complex and difficult task allows. National prosperity should be promoted materially as a result.

"Fill 'Er Up!"
Put in Some Courage
Some Faith and Common Sense

By MARSHALL MASLIN

You drive into the service station and you shut off your motor and you wait for the smiling young fellow to serve you. . .Here he comes "Shall I fill it up?" says he.

Shall he fill it, shall he? Shall he fill up the tank?

"Sure, fill her up."

Fill it with gasoline, and put in a few other things, too, if you will.

Put in a little Courage, please. The old motor needs it. It's been running into a lot of pessimism lately. Times have been tough for it. It needs all the Courage it can get.

Put in some Faith. It's been climbing too many steep grades and sometimes I think it's just about to quit. The old engine doesn't seem to know that at the end of every grade, there's a road that runs down hill. It needs Faith.

Put in some Hope, too. It's been knocking a bit and it needs cleaning out. I don't seem to be getting all the power out of this bus that I should. It just eats up the gas and I don't get any mileage. Put in a quart of Hope.

Put in some plain ordinary Common Sense while you are at it. I could stand a little of that, to cut the nonesense out of the motor and make it run sweetly again. . . Just a few drops of Common sense will help a lot.

And please wipe off the windshield. I've been running through fog and dust. I can hardly see a hundred yards ahead of me—and a man needs to see clearly these days.

That's right—fill 'er up—fill up the tank. Give me Courage and Faith and Hope and Common Sense and wipe off the windshield—and put a little Patience on the rag to keep it from fogging again.

And I'll go away smiling and be much obliged to YOU.

UNPURCHASABLE

In spite of market rise or fall
And all the woes that panics bring,
There still returns for one and all
The verdant glory of the spring.
The gold of autumn never fails.
Though rich or poor the man may be,
October spreads along the trails
A wealth of charm for him to see.

Strange thought that comes in tragic years,
When loss is everywhere deplored,
That man should shed so many tears
For pleasures which he can't afford,
That he who seems so strong and wise
Still fancies he can purchase mirth,
And, lacking money, blinds his eyes
To all the other joys of earth.

Yet never has he bought a friend
With silver worthy of the name.
The comrade, faithful to the end,
Not in the ways of barber came.
The love which strengthens him in care,
The beauty of the world at large,
And all that makes life"s pathway fair

Fliers' Conquest Of Pacific Breaks Air's Last Frontier

Pangborn And Herndon Declared To Hold High Place As Pioneers In Area Which May Offer New Opportunities In World Activities

First nonstop crossing of the Pacific ocean by Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, Jr., gives those two airmen a conspicuous place in the history of aviation. Their skill as well as their daring is the subject of much comment and it is predicted that, as a result of their success, the Pacific will take its place as an era of greater activity in world affairs.

"The last frontier of aviation has fallen and the last grand prize of the pilots has been won," says the PITTSBURGH POST-GAZETTE, calling it "a daring exploit," and recognizing "another mark of the advance which aviation is making and one which the world will note." The OAKLAND TRIBUNE states that, "while there is a real enthusiasm over this feat and disposition to accord the plucky fliers highest honors, the advances which have been made in aviation since the days when the Lone Eagle crossed the Atlantic had prepared a public until a Pacific flight was something confidently expected."

"Expertness apparently attended the adventure from first to last," according to the SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, which makes the further comment on the achievement of the two men: "The plane kept to its course and got to Seattle with plenty of reserve fuel. The choice of Wenatchee as the end of the flight was deliberate and not the result of loss of direction or a forced landing such as terminated certain other long-distance air journeys. Pangborn and Herndon will deserve whatever they may get out of their great adventure. It was daringly conceived and skillfully executed. Others have flown father. But to these two now goes the palm for the longest air journey with only the unstable water as a landing field if fate should have forced them down."

"It means that the Pacific northwest is only two days or such a matter from China and Japan," declares the PORTLAND OREGON JOURNAL, remarking also that "It heralds the arrival of a new week-end trip." The Portland paper recalls that "the Wright brothers were in the air only 29 seconds in the first flight in a heavier-than-air machine," and reviewing other landmarks in aviation history, it concludes: "It is a long span from those flights to the 41 hours and 13 minutes in which Pangborn and Herndon flew from Samushiro beach, Japan, to land at Wenatchee, Washington. It examples the powers of magical man. On the Old Oregon Trail the emigrants bound for Oregon made an average in their covered wagons of about 11½ miles a day. This first plane to cross the Pacific ocean flew 4600 miles in 41 hours and 13 minutes. It examples the courage of man. The difficulty and the perils of the flight challenged men to dare it. Whatever in the scheme of things appears as a defi to him is a call to man's daring to achieve it."

"This feat doubtless will stimulate interest in Pacific flying," in the judgment of the PASADENA STAR-NEWS, pointing out that "hitherto the Atlantic has witnessed most of the adventurous air feats." The Star-News is convinced that "California and the southwest are especially suited to air development," and that "this region is destined to be a great world center of aviation." That paper also visions the development, with the statement as to future probabilities: "The next few years doubtless will see remarkable developments in flying over the Pacific area. In truth, it is not unreasonable to expect that commercial air transport across the Pacific may come as soon as across the Atlantic. In that far future which looms with such wondrous possibilities for this Pacific and transpacific region, embracing in its water-touched lands more than half of the entire human race—in that far future, air transport across the Pacific unquestionably rise to first magnitude and surpass any other region on the face of the earth."

"They have blazed a North Pacific trail," avers the ST. LOUIS TIMES, with the added comment: "We don't for a moment believe that it will soon become popular with tourists, but it is a beginning. One of these days the mails will follow one of the courses made this summer, with stations at intervals, lights, radio aids and other safeguards and guides. There was a time, as recent as 20 years ago, that night mail flights from Omaha to the Pacific over the Rocky Mountains could not have been. But now they are."

"The adventure," as studied by the COLUMBIA (S. C.) STATE, "was, perhaps, the most daring flight attempted since the flight of Lindbergh, alone and a novice in such a field and feat, across the Atlantic. The splendid and unequaled courage of Lindbergh remains unchallenged. There are no more worlds to conquer, in a very significant sense. Until some solitary navigator rises into the air and flies without extraneous aid and without rest, either across some vaster stretch of sea, or dashes around the world in the stratosphere in a single flight, the achievement of Lindbergh's will not be matched or at least surpassed. In the meantime, this superb air voyage over the Pacific, from Japan to the United States, takes its place as the second greatest achievement in human flight. We must always, however, remember that the first Daedalian flight of the Frenchman Bleriot, across the channel, will forever remain in a splendor all its own."

ARE YOU A CORDIAL HOST

Why not act natural when guests arrive at your home instead of stiff and formal?

Your "highly proper" conduct may rob an otherwise delightful visit with friends of the very hospitality necessary to make them happy.

One reason why formal calls have lost their popularity is that the following of set rules for conduct is irksome to the modern individual.

"Poise"—what a lot of bunk is presented under its name.

Some people have become impressed with the idea that good breeding cannot accompany a hearty, enthusiastic greeting of friends.

One must be cool and collected and extremely proper to meet what they term the degree of poise which indicates a person of culture and refinement.

Of course there is the over-effusive and hail-fellow-well-met-slap you on the back—"Howdy" sort, almost as unreal in truth and appearance as the formal person.

But there is a middle position which makes guests happy.

Be yourself.

The person playing a part gives evidence of it, because there is no sincerity back of it.

READ AN EDITORIAL

"It is a gloomy moment in history. Not for many years—not in the lifetime of most men who read this paper—has there been so much grave and deep apprehension; never has the future seemed so incalculable as at this time. In our own country there is universal commercial prostration and panic, and thousands of our poorest fellow-citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment and without the prospect of it.

"In France the political caldron seethes and bubbles with uncertainty; Russia hangs as usual like a cloud, dark and silent, under the horizon of Europe; while all the energies and influences of the British empire are sorely tried, and are yet to be tried more sorely, in coping with the vast and deadly Indian insurrection, and with its disturbed relations in China.

"It is a solemn moment, and no man can feel an indifference (which, happily, no man pretends to feel), in the issue of events.

"Of our own troubles no man can see the end. They are, fortunately, as yet mainly commercial; and if we are only to lose money, and by painful poverty to be taught wisdom—the wisdom of honor, of faith, of sympathy and of charity—no man need seriously to despair. And yet the very haste to be rich, which is the occasion of this widespread calamity, has also tended to destroy the moral forces which we are to resist and subdue the calamity."

For those who tend to occasionally lose faith, the above is consoling reading, and for those who remain unshaken, it will reassure you that your judgment is correct. The principal lesson on reflection to be gained from this article written seventy-four years ago is to realize that the United States is still here today better than it was then even after passing through other vicissitudes in the interim, but only because those who have gone before us kept their faith and worked harder in each period when it was clear to their minds that work could and would surely bring success. What could be written today for today was written seventy-four years ago and again applies in every statement made.

If you or your men at times feel discouraged, you can gain much by carefully digesting this article.

DEPRESSION FELT BY YALE STUDENTS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 17.—Things are so bad at Yale now that the students are forced to pick up their own clothes and do their own dusting, the Yale News complained today.

The present staff of chambermaids is totally incapable of maintaining the students in the conditions to which they have become accustomed, says the News.

The News wants the university to hire more chambermaids, thus killing two birds with one stone—preventing undergraduates from doing menial tasks and helping solve the unemployment problem.

County Teachers Have Organized For Relief Work

Committees Make Complete Check Up Of Townships Throughout County

ARRANGEMENTS ARE NOW BEING MADE

Following resolutions passed at the recent Lawrence County Teachers' institute in which teachers agreed to give one percent of their salaries toward taking care of poor children in their districts, every township in the county has been organized for relief work, according to County Superintendent, John C. Syling.

The teachers have made a complete check of each family in which children are in need of clothing and food. Records of these families have been prepared and are being forwarded to the state department at Harrisburg.

The check up has disclosed that there are some townships in which much more help is needed than in others.

County Superintendent Syling and Assistant, C. F. Ball are also contributing one per cent of their salaries along with the teachers. In some of the schools it has been found necessary to provide lunches for children, who have been forced to come to school with nothing to eat. There are some townships in which children come largely from the farms, where very little help is needed. In these townships, where the contributions from teachers are more than are needed in relief work, all sums exceeding ten dollars in the hands of committees goes into a county organization, which distributes it where it is needed.

Superintendent Syling says that a very close check on conditions in the county has been made, and that no help will be furnished, except where it is absolutely required. There are quite a number of requests that have been turned down for various reasons.

At one school where a request for help came in an investigation disclosed that the parents had been taking an automobile trip to Canada. The committee believed that if the parents were able to go on auto trips, that they should not expect help.

In another instance it was that the parents of the children were keeping two large dogs. It was figured that it took nearly as much to keep the two big dogs, as to keep a couple of children, and help was refused unless the family gets rid of the dogs.

At another school a request came in for shoes for the children. Investigation showed that the family was still running an automobile and that it was being used for pleasure purposes. The committees believe that where people are able to keep up an automobile for pleasure and unnecessary trips, that they are not in a very good position to ask aid.

There are of course cases where automobiles are needed in marketing or in going long distances to part time employment. Cases of this character are judged on their merits.

While the contributions of teachers will probably exceed $5000, it is not believed that it will be sufficient to take care of the situation this winter. Any persons desiring to contribute to the teachers committees in the various townships have that opportunity.

SCHOOL HEADS TO ATTEND MEETING

County Superintendent of Schools, John C. Syling, and Deputy, C. F. Ball, expect to attend an educational congress to be held at Harrisburg on November 4th and 5th. The new educational building will be dedicated at that time. There will also be a meeting of secondary school principals on November 5th and 6th at which high school teachers of Lawrence county will be present.

Frances Willard Union

Members of the Frances Willard Union of the W. C. T. U. met Friday evening in the home of Mrs. J. H. Cox, Pine street, with Mrs. T. A. Preston in the chair.

The song service was led by Mrs. M. R. Newberry, Mrs. J. B. McClaren read the scripture lesson and Mrs. T. A. Preston led in prayer.

It was voted that the union would provide temperance literature for four Sabbath schools, also posters for the Epworth Methodist, the Finnish Lutheran, the Reformed Presbyterian and the Second United Presbyterian church schools.

Mrs. M. D. Allen, who was a delegate to the state convention held in Johnstown recently gave a splendid report of the meeting and brought back some beautiful throughts to the women of her union.

The union will hold a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mrs. Thomas Outhwait, 441 Neshannock avenue, Monday, October 26, with all members participating.

The hostess served refreshments, assisted by Mrs. J. M. McCandless and Mrs. Stright.

It was reported that four bouquets had been given, two sweaters, one new child's coat and cap, four dresses, two dinners, four pairs of shoes, two cakes, box of clothing and thirty magazines.

Central Union

Members of the Central Union of the W. C. T. U. met Friday evening in the parlors of the Y. W. C. A. with the L. T. L. members meeting in joint session, with the new president, Mrs. Jennie Forquer, in the chair.

The group sang "America" to open the meeting after which Mrs. W. C. Kennedy offered the prayer and the treasurer's annual report was given.

The union voted to give a donation to the Needlework Guild and to continue two subscriptions to the Union Signal.

It was voted to send a letter of thanks to the New Castle News for the courtesies extended in press work, which won the banner of Lawrence County for the best press work for the Central Union.

The new members, one active and one honorary, were enrolled and there were reported 8 evangelistic meetings: 4 devotionals led, 29 gospels distributed, 8 library books,: 8 book marks, 27 papers, magazines, 9 sick calls, 2 bouquets, 2 glasses jelly, 12 garments and $16.25 expended in cash.

At the conclusion of the reports Mrs. Jennie Forquer, president of the Union, who was one of 350 delegates of 76 counties to the fifty-seventh annual state convention held in Johnstown October 7 gave a most vivid account of the activities of the convention.

Central Union was quite proud of the fact that Mrs. Forquer had the distinction of again winning first honors for the best report on Evangelistic work and also carried first honors for report on Prison Reform, making it possible for Lawrence county to retain these honors as in previous years and a certificate was awarded in recognition for this service.

She also brought a thought for the new year "Wear a White Ribbon Always" and three flags, the American, the Christian and the W. C. T. U. which will adron the table at each meeting in the future.

The new state song "Pennsylvania W. C. T. U.' was adopted by the union.

Knights St. Vitus To Have Communion Breakfast Sunday

Interesting Speaker Has Been Secured For The Occasion

Members of the Knights of St. Vitus, to the number of more than a hundred, will participate in Holy Communion at the nine o'clock mass Sunday morning and the breakfast that will be held following the mass and communion service, in the hall of the church.

This is the second of these occasions, which are being observed quarterly by the Knights of St. Vitus.

The breakfast will be served by the Knights of St. Vitus Ladies. The principal speaker will be Father Victor of St. Fidelis College, Herman, Pa. The principal lay speaker will be Major Guy J. Wadlinger.

An innovation on this occasion at the breakfast will be the presence at the speakers' table of the elected representative of the members other than those holding office.

Harry E. Ross is this representative and should he be unable to be present, the alternative selected is Peter Mele.

Closing Services At Hoover Heights

Three Weeks Of Revival Services Have Been Successfully Conducted In Church

In spite of the storm Friday evening the Hoover Heights Tabernacle was nearly full for the revival service now in progress there. After a stirring song service led by Mrs. Slack, Rev. F. R. Schillinger of the Alliance Mission of Ellwood City led in prayer.

The musical program as presented by the Gospel Messengers was pleasing to all. Among the songs played last evening were the following: "Wonderful Peace" played as a trio number, two saxophones with the piano accordian. Mrs. Ada Anderson accompanied Peter while he played on the Cathedral chimes, "My Jesus I Love Thee." Two selections were played on the Marimba-Xylophone, "Redeemed," and "Majestic Sweetness" with Mrs. Slack accompanying on the banjo. Peter played the song "Saved, Saved" as a special number for his friend Ronal Anderson, on the piano accordian. The popular hymn "The Old Rugged Cross" was played by special request on the Vibraphone.

Mrs. Slack gave the testimony of her conversion to Christianity.

This evening Mr. Slack will give more of his experiences. These meetings will close with the services tomorrow, 10:45 a. m., 2:30 p. m. when Mrs. Slack will continue her story and at 7:30. At the evening service Peter will play on three instruments at one time. Rev. Scripture will preach.

Christian Church Tries Innovation

Sunday Evening Church Service Will Be Transferred To Wednesday Evening

Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, announces that the Sunday evening service in his church will be transferred to Wednesday evening, inasmuch as it is his opinion that many people who are faithful in their attendance at the Bible school and morning service on Sunday do not care to attend still another service in the evening, and that if this service was held on Wednesday evening, many of them would be glad to attend.

At this time the regular Sunday evening program will be conducted, including the special musical numbers and the same series of sermons on "Books of the New Testament," which Dr. Bennett has been using Sunday evenings.

Wednesday evening, at the initial "Sunday Evening Service on Wednesday" the Book of Luke will be discussed.

THEATER LIKELY WILL BE USED IN TRIAL OF POWERS

Clarksburg, West Virginia, Without Court House, May Utilize Theater

(International News Service)

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Oct. 17.—Harry F. Powers, the modern bluebeard, may be tried in a local theater for the five murders he has confessed, it was learned today.

Harrison county authorities are awaiting the return of D. Bruce Mason, member of the court away on a hunting trip, before closing a deal for use of the theater which seats 1,250.

The county at present is without a courthouse, a new one being under construction, and the custodian of the old federal court building which has been used for county court session, has forbidden use of the courtroom for the Powers trial.

Jury Dismissed In Jocelyn Lee Case On Coast

Jurors Unable To Agree Upon Guilt Or Innocence Of Screen Beauty

(International News Service)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Whether Jocelyn Lee, red headed film actress, disturbed the peace by kicking out 18 French window panes with a French slipper at the home of Ivan St. Johns, a writer, remained in dispute today.

A jury of 12 women after deliberating 12 hours was unable to agree and Municipal Judge Clarence Kincaid dismissed them early today.

Miss Lee was charged by St. Johns with disturbing the peace when he refused to admit her to his home to see her estranged husband, Luther Reed, screen director.

Miss Lee denied the charge.

DRY RAIDER GETS POLICE DOG'S JUG

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 17.—Vice Squad Raider Earl Spencer proved Friday that master of languages, including that used by dogs, is useful in liquor raids.

Spencer and his colleagues suspected that a dog house, occupied by a healthy and belligerent police dog, contained a jug of liquor. Unable to coax the animal away, Spencer began to talk "dog" to him. The dog argued with Spencer, who finally growled very vigorously, confiding to the other raider "That means get out of here," the dog abandoned his house and fled.

The raiders got the jug and took Dave Stevenson to jail. Stevenson, leaving the house, also spoke to the dog, but in English.

JUROR DRAWS PAY, QUITS HEARING CASE

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 17.—Drawing his pay while he was sitting on an unfinished case, Clarence Lynn, a farmer of Redstone township, almost clogged the wheels of justice. With other jurors he went to the treasurer's office and was paid off. This discovery was made when he failed to report for duty Friday. The case was continued with 11 jurors. Joseph C. Tyger was awarded $62 damages from Harry H. Semans for automobile damage.

National Dry Leaders Plan Counter Drive

National Dry Leaders Attack Legion And Labor Demand For Beer

SEN. SHEPPARD TO OFFER BILL

Senator Moses, New Hampshire, Prominent Dry, Advocates Battle In Congress

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Smarting under the setbacks recently sustained by them in the overwhelming wet declarations of the American Legion and the American Federation of Labor national dry leaders today set a counter attack in motion.

Senator Sheppard (D) of Texas, author of the 18th Amendment, announced he would offer a bill at the December Congress striking at the possession of liquor in the home. He had previously made known he would introduce legislation to ban the use of grape concentrates for beverage purposes.

Vote Questioned

Edwin C. Dinwiddie, executive secretary of the new national prohibition board of strategy, in a sharp letter to Henry L. Stevens, national commander of the American Legion, questioned the importance of the wet vote of the Legion at its recent Detroit convention by charging that its action had been brought about by an organized and heavily financed conspiracy of "wealthy wets."

Senator Moses (R) of New Hampshire, political dry, at the same time delivered a flank attack on the Legion demand for a prohibition referendum by asserting the country would vote dry because wets had nothing to offer as an "effective alternative."

Under Sheppard's proposal possession of liquor in the home would become a penal offense, punishable by fine and jail sentence. He would accomplish this by eliminating the clause in the Volstead Act which permits possession of "lawfully acquired liquor."

Much Money Spent

The drive to obtain a wet declaration from the American Legion, Dinwiddie charged was made through the American Veterans Association for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment which spent $725,265 and worked a year to accomplish its purpose. The association was organized for the express purpose of pushing a wet resolution through the Legion, Dinwiddie declared.

"It is manifest from this fact," he said, "that the Legion action at Detroit cannot be considered as a spontaneous expression of sentiment. Without this lavish use of money to excite and exploit wet sentiment among the veterans there is no likelihood that the Legion ever would pass a resolution adverse to prohibition."

Would Vote Dry

On a straight question of repeal the country would vote dry, Moses contended, because the wets had no sound alternative plan to offer.

"Neither party wants to monkey with prohibition," Moses said. "I don't believe there is any likelihood of a vote on the question at the coming session. There are too many other pressing questions."

Rossiter And Two Companions Await Appeals Decision

Erie Attorney And Two Companions In "Substitution" Case Appeal Convictions

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Whether or not Samuel Y. Rossiter, white-haired, widely known Erie, Pa., attorney, must serve a prison term rests today in the hands of three jurists of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. The pleas of the attorneys to free Rossiter and two companions from the ignominy of prison cells were heard by the court here late yesterday and taken under advisement.

Rossiter, Lester Beals and Joseph Donovan were sent to jail last May by a U. S. district court judge at Pittsburgh. Rossiter was sentenced to four months in jail, fined $2,500 and ordered to pay the costs of the trial. Beals was given three months and Donovan six. They were accused of conspiracy in the substitution of James Patrone, for Stanley Wells, an alleged Canadian rum runner, a client of Rossiter.

Charges Denied

Rossiter was one of several attorneys representing Wells and Beals, captured by coast guards on Lake Erie on September 25, 1929, while bringing in a load of rum. Both men were given 60 days in jail when the case came up before Judge Gibson of the Pittsburgh Federal court. Patrone stood up for sentence for Wells, but the deception was uncovered a few days later and Rossiter was accused of engineering the plot to save Wells from going to jail. He emphatically denied any part in the conspiracy, but the U. S. district court found him guilty along with Beals and Donovan and sentenced was imposed.

The case then was appealed to the high court and Judges Woolley, Davis and Johnson heard pleas for the three lawyers, argued for Rossiter asserting the evidence did not show he participated in any way in the scheme. Frank B. Quinn, Pittsburgh attorney, made pleas for Beals and Donovan, while Federal Attorneys L. E. Graham and James Marsh, of Pittsburgh, resisted the efforts to free the trio.

FIGHTING FAMOUS WAR OF INDEPENDENCE ONCE AGAIN

Historic days of the American Revolution have been recalled at Yorktown, Va., with realism, as various scenes in connection with the surrender of Cornwallis have been portrayed at the Yorktown sesqui-centennial. Above, infantry and cavalry troops are shown drawn up before "battle"; below, Lord Cornwallis, Gen. George Washington, and General Rochambeau at a historic dinner.

Seek To Secure Common Courtesy By Auto Drivers

HARRISBURG, Pa. Oct. 17.—A move to bring about reform of motoring manners has been inaugurated by the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, state unit of the American Automobile association, as a part of its campaign to cut down the number of vehicular accidents in Pennsylvania. Through its 86 affiliated clubs the federation is appealing to motorists throughout the state to observe common courtesy in driving.

"Common courtesy between drivers would eliminate at least 50 per cent of the motor accidents that occur on the streets and highways of Pennsylvania today," said S. Edward Gable, president of the federation. "Early in October we inaugurated a state-wide safety drive in an effort to avert repetition of the heavy motor vehicle accident toll in October, November and December of last year, and we feel that motoring manners play an important part in this. If decent manners and common courtesy could be introduced into motor traffic our streets and highways would be far safer and driving would be much more of a pleasure than under present conditions."

Mr. Gable deplored what he called "the all-too-general lack of common courtesy in the operation of automobiles" and cited instances of impoliteness not unfamiliar to the average driver. "Men and women pedestrians we meet on the streets, in parks, theatres or public gatherings, at home or on trains almost always are courteous and considerate," he said, "but the great majority of them seem quite different when they get behind the wheel of an automobile." His statement continued:

"Why do drivers steer a slow course in the middle of the road and express resentment when asked to move aside for another vehicle?

"Why do drivers press forward around other cars at lights at the risk of safety, and certainly with nothing to accomplish except to crowd ahead of orderly traffic until the next stoplight?

"What possesses drivers who jump their cars toward other cars at intersections to give the impression that they have the right of way? Ordinarily it results in a waste of time for both. And it surely is poor motoring manners.

"Any man of ordinary decency is willing to defer to a lady when passing through a doorway, but in a car the majority of male drivers will not defer to the extent of an inch for the woman driver.

"Once in a car, many people seem transformed as to manners. From Chesterfieldian courtesy they descend to almost animal selfishness. Management of a motor car has developed a sort of superiority complex that has gone to the heads of many, and this is what the federation seeks to overcome to as marked a degree as possible through calling on the motorists of Pennsylvania to practice common courtesy on the road. Reformation of motoring manners must start somewhere, and we feel that if the fair-minded drivers of motor cars in Pennsylvania will cooperate by observing common courtesy much can be accomplished not only in overcoming the all-too-general lack of politeness, but in cutting the number of motor vehicle accidents."

Rescue Mission Stove Appeal

The cold days bring one's thoughts to heating and there are many worthy families in the city who do not have stoves with which to heat their homes this winter and have appealed to B. J. Watkins of the Rescue Mission for them and he, in turn, is appealing to the public of New Castle and asking them to donate any kind of heating stoves, coal or gas, to the mission, that they may be placed in these family homes.

Cooking stoves as well as the heating ones are being sought. The mission also needs a lot of clothing, especially men's and children's as there is a constant demand at the mission house for these things and perhaps there are many articles of clothing hanging in cupboards about the city that could be used to keep some one warm through the winter months.

So This is Washington

By Central Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—There seems to be no doubt that "young" Teddy Roosevelt's visit to these shores was not for the purpose of embracing his kindred or attending teas. For a long time everyone has known that Teddy is all set to be the next governor-general of the Philippines. This time he had to count without the influence of Nick Longworth who, when the Porto Rican job hung fire, stepped on the gas good and plenty for his brother-in-law. Alice may give one of her Queen Mary imitations in his favor, but that haughty droop of the eyelids is not what it was in the old days of the precedence marathon.

Dwight Davis, it is understood, has never been "crazy" over the Philippine job, he cherished more soaring delusions of grandeur, and the Philippines were handed out as a pacifier. His wife, also an Alice, has never—if memory serves me—gone out to the islands for even the briefest of visits. His daughter acts as hostess.

When the Davises lived in Washington during his incumbency as secretary of war they rented a big house not far from Dupont Circle. The house was red—blood-red—with blocks of snow-white marble occurring here and there, which made the facetious refer to it as the "larded beef" home.

Midway during his term as secretary of war the Dwight Davises decided, like so many others in official life, to "go simple," i. e. to move into one of those lovely colonial estates in old Georgetown which is an older settlement than Washington, D. C., and is not named after the Father of His Country, but George III of England, if you please. But nothing was available at the time. They had dreamed of gardens, boxwood, summer houses, and other outdoor simplicities of the rural life. So they remained in the blood-red brick with the white garnishings until Dwight sailed away with General John A. Hull—the former jurge advocate general—who was to act in the capacity of legal adviser. Everyone in Washington will be glad to see General Hull back. He is distinctly popular.

FRANCE OPPOSES DEBT REVISIONS SOVIET BELIEVES

(International News Service)

MOSCOW, Oct. 17—Belief that France will never agree to any permanent revision of interallied debts and reparations payments was expressed by the Soviet newspaper, "Red Star" today.

In support of its belief, the paper declared France fears that any general reduction in debts and reparations "might free Germany" lead to a revision of the Versailles treaty and permit expansion of German armaments."

PITCH HORSESHOES IN CHURCH CELLAR

As one passes the Highland United Presbyterian church on nights when there are no religious services in the church the sounds of clanking horse shoes can be heard and upon investigating, there, in the basement room of the church, which has not yet been cemented and put to other use, the men of the church and the neighborhood gather and show their prowess at pitching horseshoes from one stake to another. The men have become quite expert at throwing "ringers."

There has been no organization of teams made yet this winter but plans are under way for linking up the players into groups.

Jap Film Star Will Fight For Adopted Child

Sessue Hayakawa, Former Screen Star Will Fight To Retain Adopted Boy

By WALLACE X. RAWLES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese film actor, today through his wife, struck back at Ruth Noble, American stage actress, who charged that he was the father of her young son.

Answering the suit filed by Miss Noble to set aside the adoption of the boy by Hayakawa and his Japanese wife, Tsuru Aoki, stage and screen actress, the latter declared:

Will Wage Fight

"The boy is legally ours and we will fight the suit."

Hayakawa remained in guarded seclusion, but his attorney said the actor would accept service today on Miss Noble's suit.

Mrs. Hayakawa declared that "the filing of Miss Noble's suit came as a great surprise".

Hayakawa and his wife were ordered to appear November 3 before Superior Judge Dudley Valentine to answer a petition for a court order to restrain them from taking the adopted baby from the jurisdiction of the court pending a hearing on Miss Noble's petition.

Miss Noble filed her suit after the superior court had denied a motion last September 8 that the adoption decree be vacated.

"I don't know why I ever let them take him," Miss Noble said today.

Refuses to Talk

Miss Noble said she would gladly release Mr. and Mrs. Hayakawa from their signed agreement to pay her $4,500 in exchange for the baby if they would consent to return him to her.

Hayakawa told International News Service:

"I will give out a statement only after I have talked to my attorney. I will say nothing further now."

The strange tragic drama of the orient and the occident started. Miss Noble said, when she joined Hayakawa's vaudeville company in Baltimore in 1927 following Hayakawa's return to America from Japan.

Miss Noble and Hayakawa toured the United States for nearly a year, she said.

Arrests Made In Campaign To Save School Property

Boys Caught Climbing Fence At Ben Franklin Made To Pay Fines

First arrests in the campaign conducted by Constable and Special Officer Robert Stewart for the school district to put an end to the destructive and malicious acts done by boys to various school properties, were made Friday afternoon, when Constable Stewart caught Veikko Syrjanen and Frank Naples, students at Ben Franklin Junior High, climbing the wire fence about the athletic field.

As it is not the purpose of the school board or the officer to act hastily or do anything that is not right, the boys were questioned by the officer and claimed that they had climbed the fence to get to football practice in which they were to participate. The officers and the boys went to the scene of football activities to check up and it was found that they had not told the facts. Then it was found that they were absent from their classes without permission.

They were taken before Alderman Walter T. Hamilton, where they were charged with trespassing and entered pleas of guilty. They paid a fine and costs. It is proposed to continue this action against all persons, who are caught destroying property of the school district.

According to Constable Stewart, more than 150 lights of glass in the shops at Ben Franklin Junior High School, have been broken by stones thrown by some of the boys.

LAY PLANS FOR VETS' REUNION

Pennsy's Old-Timers Will Dine Here November 21; Gleason Chairman

Veterans of the Erie & Ashtabula division, Pennsylvania railroad, having service records of 20 years or longer, will hold their 11th annual reunion at the Carnegie auditorium here on Saturday, November 21.

Officers and other leaders of the E. & A. Veterans' association, meeting at divisional offices last night, took first action toward getting the plans for the annual event under way. President Joseph P. Clark presided.

L. C. Gleason, division safety agent, was named to serve as general chairman of the committee on arrangements. He will name his assistants and announce them at another meeting of the officers scheduled for Tuesday evening, October 20.

The local division association's membership roll includes the names of 650 active members and 100 retired veterans. The memory of Patrick F. Walsh, Warren, O., aged 97, for years the oldest of the members, will be honored at the reunion. Walsh died on October 1.

Thomas Swaney, aged 87, now ranks as the association's oldest member.

Vitamin A Is Necessary For Body Development, Dr. Clendening States

Infections Of Eyes May Follow Omission Of Green Or Cooked Vegetables, Eggs, Butter In Diet

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

A newspaper story of a few days ago described the success of certain chemists in perfecting a method of isolating pure carotene in an inexpensive form. Carotene is the vegetable substance which holds vitamin A in combination. Hitherto, it has been very expensive in pure chemical concentration.

It is a curious fact that in most animal products vitamin A appears as a colorless product—cod liver oil for instance. In the vegetable kingdom, it is associated with pigment, particularly yellowish pigment, but also the green of leaves. Thus carrots, squash, green corn, yellow turnips and pumpkins contain it—but so do parsnips and spinach. Animal products which combine pigment and vitamin A are yolk of eggs and butter. It has been suggested that carotene in vegetables is the precursor of animal vitamin A, and that when these vegetables yield the vitamin to animal economy, it becomes colorless.

Vitamin A is certainly very important in nutrition. If it is absent from the diet of an experimental animal, the animal suffers from infections, particularly of the eyes—a condition with the jaw breaking name— Xerophthalmia. This disease is occasionally seen in human subjects who have omitted substances with vitamin A from the diet —green and cooked vegetables, eggs and butter.

Vitamin A is also necessary for proper growth and bodily development. It is fortunate, therefore, that late investigations have established beyond doubt what definite members of the vegetable kingdom furnish this valuable substance.

Limiting the diet too exclusively to these products, however, causes certain not entirely favorable results to follow. When a few years ago carrots were hailed as a particularly good food for infants, it was found that a peculiar yellowish discoloration of the skin occurred. This condition has also been found in diabetics who, of course, eat a diet in which vegetables predominate. Yesterday in this column was told the story of a patient who had a similar condition, developing after the use of an exclusively vegetable diet for purposes of reducing.

The yellowish discoloration of the skin in these people resembles jaundice and is often mistaken for it. No permanent harm is done in these cases, however, if the condition is recognized and the diet is changed so that the green and pigmented vegetables are balanced by other food substances.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Six pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

DAM WORKER IS HURLED 25 FEET, SERIOUSLY INJURED

CHARLEROI, Pa., Oct. 17.—Rodger Gallagher, 35, foreman of a concrete gang of the Dravo Construction company, employed in building the new dam and Lock No. 4 across the river from here, was struck by a compressed air line, which suddenly broke and hurled him 25 feet into the pit of a cofferdam. He is in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital in a dying condition from a fractured skull and body injuries. His nose was severed and right eye torn out as he fell into a pile of steel castings at the bottom of the dam. He has been employed with the Dravo company for 15 years.

THREE ARE FREED IN FATAL ACCIDENTS

GREENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 17.—Three automobile drivers were freed of blame Friday by coroner's juries at inquests. Charles McNeal of Greensburg was exonerated in the case of William H. Y. W. C. A. Protects Girls Away From Home Report Shows

The Y. W. C. A. protects many girls away from home was the report heard by the Building Committee of the Y. W. C. A., of which Mrs. A. B. Fankhauser is chairman. The night matron told the committee of several cases of girls traveling alone who had come to the Y. W. C. A. for assistance during the past month. Sometimes this meant giving the girl a free bed until she could get work through the Y. W. C. A. Employment Bureau and sometimes it was just for one night until she could go on to her home in another city. The rates for dormitory beds run from twenty-five cents a night to one dollar and twenty-five cents a night and two dollars and fifty cents to three dollars a week, but no girl is ever turned away for lack of funds as the Y. W. C. A. is the only home away from home that a girl can find in New Castle.

Franklin Students See Unique Playlet

School Players Perform In Scenery-less Dramatization Friday

An inovation in local dramatics—a humorous playlet done in Chinese style minus the usual scenery—was offered to the students of the Benjamin Franklin junior high school in assembly periods Thursday and Friday.

Characters in the performance were members of the school's Dramatic club, under the special supervision of Miss Ruth Lewis.

The playlet is the first of a series of performances which the amateur players expect to produce this year. They plan to present a three-act production before Thanksgiving.

Michigan Blonde Is Convicted Of Aiding Murderer

Miss Kate Keller, 25, Faces One To Five Year Prison Term For Aiding Slayer

(International News Service)

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 17.—Miss Kate Keller, 25-year-old blonde heiress and niece of the late Judge Darwin Curtis, Friday was convicted by a jury of eleven men and one woman of charges of being an accessory after the fact in the notorious Washtenaw county torch murders three months ago when four young persons were slain and their bodies burned.

Miss Keller, who, as a result of the conviction, faces a term of from one to five years in prison, is alleged to have sheltered Fred Smith, her sweetheart and "brains" of the trio of fiendish slayers while police hunted him. Smith and his two companions are serving life terms for the crime.

Portraits Of Washington Are Sent To Schools

Valuable Picture Of Nation's First President Are Being Sent Out, Swick Says

Word hase been received from Hon. J. Howard Swick, Congressman from the local district, by Fred L. Rentz, president of The News, that a copy of a portrait poster of George Washington is being sent out to each class room in the district, through the secretaries of the various school districts.

Congressman Swick in his communication expresses the wish that the students in the various schools will frame the pictures and if possible, arrange suitable unveiling programs, at the time the picture is hung.

Tachers desiring material for study and reading in connection with the life and activities of Washington, may obtain it by sending their request to Congressman Swick's office in Washington.

The portrait is of considerable value, both artistically and financially, Dr. Swick states, being worth approximately $10.00. Because of its value, it should be preserved so that incoming students in the years to come, may benefit by its presence. The pupils should be impressed with the significance of the coming nation-wide celebration of the 200th annivrsary of the birth of George Washington.

Aged Woman Tries To Drown Herself But Is Rescued

Man Wades Into Monongahela River And Drags Woman To Safety

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—Suffering from pneumonia, a 70-year old unidentified woman was in the Homeopathic hospital today following her dramatic rescue from what police believed was an intentional attempt to drown herself in the Monongahela river near Brown's bridge, Homestead.

Andrew Rosser, 34, World War veteran of Homestead, waded waist deep in muck and slime and at the risk of his own life dragged the woman to safety. Rosser had been standing on the bridge with his brother when he noticed the woman wading into the river.

Attempts at identification were being made today.

LOOKING BACK

IN NEW CASTLE

Every true American knows more or less about the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln after the successful conclusion of the Civil War 1861-1865 and the fact that he was fatally wounded on the evening of April 14, 1865, while attending the performance at the Ford Theatre, Washington, where his assailant John Wilkes Booth, well known actor of those days and a southern sympathizer, was performing on that night. All local residents will be interested in learning the manner in which the news of the assassination of President Lincoln reached here the following day. The following was related by a local resident, who as a boy and was present when the news was officialy announced here. It must be remembered that there were no telegraph lines into this place, and the news was received by the only known method of speed of those days, namely by messengers riding on horseback. It was Saturday and a market day, according to the informant in this case and there was great excitement everywhere as the word was passed about that important news was to be given out at the Cochran House, which was the name of the Fountain Inn in those days. Finally when a great throng had gathered in front of the Cochran House, Congressman John W. Wallace appeared on the balcony in front of the hotel. He took off his silk hat, while the gathering was opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Audley Browne. Following the prayer, Congressman Wallace announced that he had just received word by a man who came by horseback to the effect that President Abraham Lincoln had been fatally shot the night previous while attending a performance in the Ford Theatre, Washington, D. C. The informant in this story states that the crowd was very much effected by the sad news, women in the crowd crying and men standing about with tears in their eyes and sorrow shown in their faces. It was a terribly saddened throng that left the public square on that memorable morning.

Young Japanese Officers Held

Number Of Younger Army Officers In Tokio District Are Under Arrest

By JAMES R. YOUNG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

TOKIO, Oct. 17.—A number of younger Army Officers in the Tokio district were arrested today for radical utterances and an alleged political conspiracy against Count Nobuaki Makino and others close to the Japanese throne.

The popular presumption here is that the officers under arrest were demanding a stronger Manchurian policy. The police have banned publication of any details of the arrests.

Seek To Connect Maryland Slayer With New Deaths

Detroit Officials Probe Killing Of Six And Would Link Maryland Negro

WILL FACE TRIAL NEXT WEDNESDAY

(International News Service)

BERLIN, Md., Oct. 17.—Orphan Jones, 60-year old Negro farmhand, held in connection with the slaying of a farmer, his wife, and their two daughters, may be connected with a wholesale family murder in Michigan, it was revealed here today, following receipt of information from Detroit officials.

Jones is alleged to have confessed to killing Green K. Davis, 55, his wife, Eva, 47, and their two daughters, Elizabeth, 15, and Mary Lee, 13, in their little farmhouse near Taylorsville, early last Sunday morning.

Jones is awaiting action of a special grand jury which is scheduled to indict him for the four murders next Monday and to place him on trial on Wednesday.

In the mantime word was received here from Detroit officials who sought to link Jones with the murder of an Italian family of six, slain under almost the same conditions, supposedly by an aged Negro.

YOUTHFUL PRISONER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.— Three attempts to committ suicide resulted in failure for Louis Anderson, 20, police said, after the youth had been arrested on a suspicious person charge and lodged in Central police station. Found hanging in his cell, he was removed to Mercy hospital where his condition today was reported good.

DISCHARGE ANOTHER MAN NABBED IN RAID

Leroy McClenden, colored, arrested Tuesday night when city and county police visited 1101 Moravia street, and found, they report, 50 gallons of moonshine, was discharged because of insufficient evidence when he appeared for a continued hearing before Alderman Green yesterday.

J. Van Rhodes, colored, also arrested in the raid, was released for the same reason by Alderman Green on Thursday.

Delegates To Rivers Meet Return Home

Endorsement Of Tri-River Improvement Is Hailed Real Victory

ONLY PROJECT TO SECURE APPROVAL

E. W. Beadel, vice president of the Beaver, Mahoning, and Shenango Rivers Improvement Association with Charles H. Johnson of this city has returned from Charleston, W. Va., where they attended the 37th annual convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association, which was held the early part of this week.

According to Mr. Beadel the convention was a most interesting one, and will undoubtedly give the canalization of the Beaver, Mahoning and Shenango rivers great impetus.

In fact, the local project was the only one given specific mention in resolutions adopted by the Ohio Valley Association urging river improvements.

The part of the resolution referring to the local project reads as follows:

"This association urges that work of the survey and report on all other tributary projects such as the Beaver, Mahoning, and Shenango rivers be expedited in order that such of them as have the approval of the United States engineers may be speedily completed and the tonnage given the main stream (the Ohio river) and the numerous communities which they serve, receive the benefits of water transportation."

Both Mr. Beadel and Mr. Johnson were named vice presidents of the Ohio Valley Association.

The address of Congressman John G. Cooper, who spoke of the history and development of water transportation in the United States was a most enlightening one and made a deep impression on the Ohio Valley Association. Congressman Cooper told his audience that the proposed tri-river improvement would produce more tonnage in one year than the entire amount handled between Pittsburgh and Cairo on the Ohio, and would average between twelve and fifteen million tons annually.

Brenneman's Cattle Are Again Winners

Volant Cattle Take Prizes At State Fair Held At Raleigh

Cattle owned by Charles L. Brenneman of Volant again won high honors, when they annexed a number of prizes at the Raleigh state fair held last week.

In the Guernsey class, Brenneman's animals won Senior, Junior and Grand Champion female two-year-old. They also took first place in all classes, and won in all groups except the calf herd.

Hospital Aides At Grove City Meet

Excellent Reports Are Given On Recent Activities Of Auxiliary

GROVE CITY, Oct. 17.—The regular meeting of the Grove City Hospital Auxiliary held at the home of Mrs. Cal Moon, Friday, two splendid reports were given in regard to the recent donation day, and the play which was given several weeks ago.

The net proceeds of the play after all bills were paid was $230.85.

Mrs. Robert McCoy, chairman of the donation day, gave a detailed report of the number of preserves and fruit, vegetables and jellies which have been received. This was a large amount, because of the abundant fruit this year.

INSTALL OFFICERS

Installation and ordination of elders and deacons will take place Sunday, October 25th at the morning service in the United Presbyterian church. The new men are Elders: R. E. English, Dr. A. J. Calderwood, W. H. McCracken; Deacons: Mrs. R. E. English, Mrs. Merle Montgomery, and Harry Carlson.

PLANT MEMORIAL TREE

Members of the General Hugh Mercer Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will plant and dedicate a tree on the Grove City Campus Friday afternoon at 2:30 in commemoration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the birthday of George Washington. A fine program will be given. Mrs. W. C. Ketler will be the address.

FOOD SUPPLY GOOD

There will be no lack of feed at the George Junior Republic during the winter months. The amount of canned and preserved food for the winter use is very large this year. About 1000 cans of preserved food are in storage, not counting the corn that is dried and other vegetables in the cellars at the Republic.

There are now 58 citizens on the Republic roll. The miniature state was organized 15 years ago for the purpose of correcting through self-discipline and attainment, boys and girls who become citizens of the state.

Franklin Girls Have Membership Drive Last Week

Girl Reserve Club At Junior High Reports Membership Of 258

By four o'clock Friday evening, when the Girl Reserve Club membership drive closed at the Benjamin Franklin junior high school, the number of members had swelled to a record-breaking total.

Miss Evea Coulter, chief faculty advisor of the club, announced this morning that the membership is 258. That is tremendous, compared with last semester's membership of 165.

The drive was commenced early in the week and each member was given a white sailor cap to wear while in school, distinguishing them from the non-members.

Josephine Daino, president of the popular club sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., spoke in chapel Thursday and Friday and explained the theme of the year—"Sail, sail, sail, where to it's up to you", saying that the sailor caps were indicative of this theme.

The club plans to visit seven different countries this semester, at their meetings, and to become better acquainted with the girls of those countries. Some time ago the Franklin girls wrote letters to some Japanese girls. They are anxiously awaiting the replies. Scrap books are being prepared by the scrap book interest group and will also be sent across the seas.

Advisors to the club are Miss Evea Coulter, Margaret Guy, Hazel Bergland and Agnes Webster.

FOR MAYOR AND POLICE

New Castle, Pa., October 16, 1931.

Editor News,
Dear Sir:

In last night paper I read an article where the Chief of Police had given twenty permits to carry a gun. The article I read said the fine was up to three thousand dollars if you were caught carrying a gun concealed. Now the other night a certain gentleman of color was caught trying to break into a store on State street. This man was not only trying to break into a building but breaking the law. This gentleman had a gun on his person when searched. The gun wasn't loaded, but that doesn't make any difference, the man had a gun. He was breaking the law when he went out on the street with it. Now I would like to know if the fine for carrying concealed weapons is three thousand dollars. Why was this man in the case only fined ten dollars for trying to break into a store and for carrying a gun and then sent on his way rejoicing. If they have passed a gun law the police should see that it's enforced, and lock up even their pets if they have a gun concealed on their person.

CRITICIZES STREET WORK

Editor of News,
Dear Sir:—

I wish to congratulate the city council on the swell job they are doing on Hamilton street. If Hamilton street had been in another part of town they might of paved it instead of daubing it all over with cement and crushed limestone. Hamilton street was a sight and it still is a sight. The people sure are tickled to death because the city council saved enough money to fix their street. But the poor little ducks that used to paddle in the holes in the street when they were full of water have to take to the Big Run, but they will have a little farther to walk. Not only that but they will have to skate somewhere else this winter. Now about this job of repair work, there is just one thing they forgot to do, and that is they forgot to sand paper the rough spots. Do this, my dear city councilmen, and the job will be completed.

Your friend.
WILLIAM P. PARK, JR.

SUES FATHER FOR LIFE OF SPINSTER

SAN JOSE, Cal., Oct. 17.—For 30 years Miss Gertrude Hoover stayed single.

Her father, Henry Hoover, 86, agreed to give her all his money if she did not marry, and cared for him, she explained.

But now he refuses to give her the money, and she is suing him for $80,000, charging that she refused an offer of marriage, gave up a romance of her own and an opportunity for a home of her own under the agreement.

Hoover, she claims, is incompetent.

Music Mystery Is Solved Here

Explantion Of Musical Instrument Gifts Given By Local Music School

Allentown's musical mystery which had the proprietor of a store there puzzled for several days has been solved, according to Ed. R. Smith, who is affiliated with the Smith-Williams Music Institute of this city.

The local music school has been greatly expanding its territory of late, having established schools in fourteen cities in New York and Western Pennsylvania.

Recently they affiliated with the Pennsylvania Institute of Music in Allentown and crew managers and salesmen were out soliciting business in the new field.

One of the salesmen was ordered by the district manager to leave his instruments at a certain store in Allentown, but became confused in his directions and left them at the wrong place. In the meantime, the manager left for another district, and a new manager took his place. He ordered his salesmen to leave their instruments at the same store which had been selected as a headquarters, but again missed directions and the other merchant received them.

The man with whom the instruments had been left became puzzled and informed the police. The mystery was solved when the police began investigating.

Rev. R. J. Fredericks Installed Friday

Impressive Ceremony Marks Induction Of Pastor At Calvary Presbyterian Church

An impressive service marked the program at the Calvary Presbyterian church at East New Castle Friday evening as the first pastor of the charge, Rev. R. J. Fredericks, was formally installed as minister to the congregation.

Rev. Ross M. Haverfield, moderator of the Shenango Presbytery, was in charge of the ceremonies and also gave the charge to the pastor.

B. J. Watkins, superintendent of the Rescue Mission, gave the invocation and Dr. W. E. McClure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, gave the address of the evening, taking as his theme, "The New Era Under Joshua", with the first eight persons of the book of Joshua as the basis of his discourse.

The charge to the people was made by Dr. Charles H. Bell of Ellwood City and the prayer of installation was offered by Rev. L. W. Greenlee of Princeton church.

Following the service the new pastor received the congratulations of his congregation and friends.

CYCLIST KILLED IN CRASH WITH AUTO

INDIANA, Pa., Oct. 17.—Adam Myers, 16, of Blacklick, died today and Raymond Gamble, 22, was injured when their motorcycle collided with an automobile on the Indiana-Blairsville road. Andrew Timura, 23, of Coral, was driving the automobile, police said. He told them he was driving into the highway from a side road when the collision occurred.

SOUTH RAISING SILVER FOXES

BREVARD, N. C., Oct. 17.—Silver fox farming, heretofore considered possible only in Canada or the northern part of the United States, has been successfully undertaken near here.

The Blue Ridge Silver Fox Farm, a St. Louis corporation, has established a large ranch in the Blue Ridge mountains and has over 60 pair of silver foxes in pens. The farm is the only one of its kind in the old south.

Climatic conditions closely resemble those prevailing on Prince Edward Island, Canada, where domestic raising of silver foxes started 24 years ago. The altitude, 2,500 feet above sea level, makes the climate fairly cold in the winter and cool in the summer, despite the fact the locality is in the southern part of the United States.

Other valuable fur bearing animals, such as mink and skunk, are to be raised in large numbers on the ranch.

Ask Service Agencies Be Maintained

President's Organization On Unemployment Urges Full Support Of Agencies

FEEL THAT NEED IS GREATER THAN EVER

While the great work planned by the President's Organization on Unemployment Relief is primarily concerned with unemployment and relief of those now working this winter, a very decided emphasis has also been placed on character-building, citizen-training, and leisure-time social service activities maintained by various organizations in the different communities.

This information is contained in a communication received from F. W. Ramsey, chairman of the President's Organization on Unemployment Relief by the New Castle Community Chest today, the text of which follows;

"The present economic depression has greatly increased the public demand for the services of health, recreation, and character-building, provided by the permanent agencies of our country devoted to those high interests, as a time when the income from endowment and service fees has greatly diminished. All the constructive service programs of family agencies are subject to the greatest demands in their experience. It is essential that they be strengthened for the larger service demanded of them in this time of depression. A reduction of facilities for family case work, for child care, for public health, for the occupation of leisure time, for all character-building and sustaining measures, would so affect the social well-being of the community as to result in an actual increase of relief needs.

"It is not sufficient that the American people in a great act of unselfish neighborliness provide that no man, woman, or child in the United States shall suffer from lack of food, shelter, or clothing during these months before us, but the duty is upon us as well to fully protect the physical, social, and moral health of the Nation.

"We recognized during the emergency of war that measures of social welfare throughout the country needed to be sustained in full power and many of them strengthened to meet the greater demands, attending war's emergency. So, equally, we need to recognize the same responsibility upon our Nation in this hour.

"The resources and powers of every accredited social welfare organization in the United States are being taxed to the limit and larger provision must be made for the mounting demands of the months before us.

"We have within our country, the resources necessary for the complete fulfillment of all these obligations to our people. Given widespread understanding of the need, the people of our country will make full provision for the meeting of the need."

Easton Chosen As Site For Sabbath School Convention

Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Association Ends Convention At Altoona

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 17.—Selecting Easton as the site for the 1932 convention and recommending re-election of all present officers the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association Friday ended its 69th annual meeting here.

Officers who will be returned are: President, Harry E. Paisley, Philadelphia; treasurer, Joseph M. Steele, Philadelphia; and treasurer, W. E. Myers, Philadelphia, together with 14 vice-presidents.

Two new vice-presidents, L. G. Runk, Altoona, and E. H. Bonsall, Philadelphia, were named to vacancies at the closing session.

James A. Lansing, Scranton, C. S. Heinz, Pittsburgh, and Joseph M. Steele, Philadelphia, were re-elected as directors for a two year term.

Gas Well Driller Fatally Injured

H. D. Gray, 46, Is Second Workman Killed In Tioga County Gas Field

(International News Service)

WELLSBORO, Pa., Oct. 17.—The second fatal accident in the Tioga county gas field was recorded Friday with the death of H. D. Gray, 46, driller employed by the Universal Oil and Gas Company, on Croft Well No. 1, Lawrence township, south of Nelson.

Gray incurred internal injuries when the bull ropes broke while he was at work on the rig, and died in Blossburg State Hospital. The exact manner of the accident has not been determined.

The first fatal accident in the local gas field occurred during the summer on the Pennsylvania Power and Light pipe line construction project.

'Four Hundred' Figures

Social Leaders Of New York And Nation As Seen By Ethelda Bedford, New Castle News Staff Writer

MRS. HENRY DELAFIELD PHELPS

By ETHELDA BEDFORD

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—She's changed her name twice, but one seldom thinks of her by any name except her first—Muriel Vanderbilt. Of THE Vanderbilts.

Now she's Mrs. Henry Delafield Phelps. She was once Mrs. Frederick Cameron Church. As Mrs. Phelps she resides in her luxurious Newport home, "Dudley House." As Mrs. Church she lived on Beacon Hill, atop snooty Boston. And as Muriel Vanderbilt she set a pace for the blue bloods of Long Island, as her mother, Mrs. Graham Fair Vanderbilt, has as large and beautiful an estate as you'd imagine a Vanderbilt would have. "Fairmount" it's called, at Manhasset, Long Island.

Tall and not the least angular, Mrs. Phelps has dark brown hair, which glistens with golden lights. She effects a charming nonchalance in the arrangement of her coiffure. Her thick curly locks are bobbed and lie carelessly in ringlets.

Vivacious

There is something theatrical about the way she dresses, the tilt of her hats, the ringlets against her cheeks and high forehead, her bright rouge in a Cupid's bow on her naturally well-shaped lips.

She's known for her dynamic personality and sparkling vivaciousness.

Muriel ranks as one of the most gracious and charming of all of the Vanderbilts. Those who know her well and those who only have a how-do-you-do acquaintance claim she does not possess one snobbish trait.

Her first wedding awed society with its lavishness, but her second was anything but Vanderbiltian in contrast. Very simple, as the bride requested that the money which might have been spent on presents and fuss 'n feathers be put to funds for the unemployed. She has given much time to charity work, especially since the depression.

Not Extravagant

Although she is a granddaughter of the late William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., and a great-great-granddaughter of Cornelius Vanderbilt, the Staten Island ferryboat captain, who lived to pile millions and establish his clan well up on the social ladder, Mrs. Phelps never has been extravagant, or squandered her income as certain other rich girls have.

Mrs. Henry Delafield Phelps

Likes sports— horseback riding best. Owns several horses. Some of which have carried away prizes. She is a familiar figure at Belmont Park.

Looks stunning in sports clothes. But never muffs a chance to look 100 per cent feminine. Goes in for lots of gay printed frocks and flattering, brimmed hats.

Twenty Million Left By Morrow

Late New Jersey Senator And Diplomat's Will Will Be Probated Next Week

MRS. LINDBERGH GETS OVER MILLION

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A $20,000,000 estate was left by the late Dwight W. Morrow, United States Senator from New Jersey, it was reported Friday.

Because he was said to have carried numerous accounts in the names of members of his families and others, it was likely that only about half the estate would be subject to inheritance taxes.

Mrs. Morrow, reports stated, probably would be the sole executrix under Morrow's will.

Morrow made settlements on each of his children during his life. At the time of Anne's marriage to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, it was reported he settled a sum estimated between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000 on her.

The will is to be probated in Hackensack, N. J., next week.

Liberty Grange

The community service held in the hall last Sabbath evening was largely attended and a very interesting address on "Prohibition", was given by Dr. Martin.

On Sabbath evening, October 25, the community service at the hall will be in charge of Rev. W. W. Nelson of the Second Baptist church of New Castle and "The Miniature Choral Society" will have charge of the music for the evening.

The Harlansburg W. C. T. U. and the Grange will hold a Hallowe'en social in the hall Friday evening, October 23.

Miss Bertha McCracken spent a few days last week in Pittsburgh, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Olive Forbes is on the jury this week.

Mrs. Ruth McConahy of Plaingrove spent last Thursday with her mother Mrs. Jennie Walton.

Mrs. Venetta Kildoo has returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kildoo of Mt. Jackson.

The Harlansburg W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Pearl McCracken last Thursday with thirty eight members and five visitors present.

Other officers elected include: Ted Blaha, New Castle, vice-president; Blodwen Davis, New Castle, secretary; Ada Short, Wheatland, treasurer; and Michael Kocheran, Duquesne, athletic council representative.

Hazen, a member of Kappa Phi Lambda fraternity, was editor of the Argo, junior annual, which last year won All-America rating. Blaha, a member of Theta Upsilon Omega, is manager of the varsity football team. Miss Davis, a member of Sigma Kappa, has been a member of the student council and of the oratorio society. Miss Short, an officer in Kappa Alpha Alpha, has been active in musical and journalistic societies. Kocheran, president of the varsity lettermen's association, has been a member of the varsity basketball team for three seasons.

Collect Samples Of Water Near Mines

Association Against Pollution To Have Water Analyzed At Once

Alderman O. H. P. Green today reported that the Association Against the Pollution of Pennsylvania streams, organized here recently, had already received 49 samples of water taken from local streams along which mines were located and will be analyzed by Sharon and New Castle chemists.

The water was collected along both branches of the Slippery Rock and its tributaries in Butler county.

The men who collected the water samples are Louis Heinz and James Riddle, of Slippery Rock and Ira Butler and O. E. Koonse, of New Castle.

During the rest of the current week the men will collect samples of water from the Slippery Rock, Wolf and Muddy Creeks in Lawrence county.

The water will be analyzed to discover exactly where the sulphur water, which has destroyed fish, is entering the creeks.

WORLD'S HIGHEST DAM

(International News Service)

PARIS, Oct. 17.—The highest dam in the world is to be built at Corps, in the Isere department to check the Alpine torrent, the Drac. It will be 420 feet high and the depth of water behind it will be over 350 feet. This huge dam will be built of concrete, faced with stone, 45 feet at its base and ten feet thick at the top. The artificial lake behind it will measure 1000 yards across. The waterfall of 300 feet will be used to work the turbines of a huge generating station.

Nothing less than a six can give you built-in smoothness

The whole question was settled long ago—as to how many cylinders it takes in a motor car engine to give satisfactory smoothness. Science definitely established the fact that at least six are necessary. And today, the public accepts the multi-cylinder engine in the same way that it accepts 4-wheel brakes, parallel-mounted springs and every other principle of proved and acknowledged superiority. Everybody knows that nothing less than a six can give you built-in smoothness.

This general acceptance of the multi-cylinder idea has had a great deal to do with the fact that the Chevrolet, month after month, during 1931, has been the largest selling automobile. For Chevrolet is a six.

Today, this six-cylinder smoothness and dependability are within reach of every new car buyer. For Chevrolet has produced a quality car, powered it with a firmly-mounted six-cylinder motor—engineered it to run at less expense for gas, oil and upkeep than any other car—and priced it right down among the very lowest-priced cars in the market.

MOTORIST INJURED BY HIS OWN AUTO

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—Struck by his own automobile, Joseph Nestor, 20, of McKeesport, was in a serious condition in a McKeesport hospital Friday.

The starter, Nestor told police, balked. He got out, cranked the car—and jumped.

Too late he remembered it was in gear. The car knocked him down, one wheel passed over him.

School Children Will Have Benefit Revue To Provide Relief Funds

Plans are now well matured whereby it is hoped to create a Relief Fund for aid of school children from unfortunate homes of the city.

Last year a Benefit Football Game was played to create a Milk Fund. From this fund undernourished children coming from needy homes were given a lunch of milk and crackers. In some of the schools where facilities were available a more substantial lunch, consisting of soup, milk, bread and butter was served.

The money which was provided last year has been exhausted. This year school authorities have recognized the need for extending charitable aid for school children beyond the furnishing of milk and have established the School Children's Relief Fund to provide for emergency welfare work. As a means of raising money for this fund, it has been decided to present an Autumn Revue, to be held in the Senior High School auditorium, October 27, 28, and 29.

Good Enrollment Seen For Schools

Leadership Training Courses To Be Started In County Next Week

The Leadership Training schools that begin Monday, October 19 at the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. and at New Castle at the First Baptist church Tuesday, October 20 will have a good enrollment at both places and special recognized courses will be given under the instruction of Dr. George W. Wellburn, superintendent of Christian Education of the State Association. At New Wilmington the course given will be No. 6, "Teaching work of the local church using the book by Bower "Religious Education in the Modern Church" published by the Bethany Press. At New Castle the course will be Unit No. 2, "Principles of Teaching" using the book by Blanche Carrier "How Shall I Learn to Teach Religion", published by Harper. Both of the courses and books have been approved by Rev. J. Ralph Neale, pastor of the United Presbyterian church of New Wilmington who is Dean of their school, and Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church of New Castle, who is dean of the local school.

Standard credit of ten hours will be given for the five class periods that will extend over the two weeks time. The first class periods at both New Wilmington and New Castle will thoroughly explain the courses and those planning to enroll should be at these opening sessions.

This will be the first leadership training school to be held in New Wilmington and New Castle, although there have been schools held in Ellwood City and Butler for the past few years, alternating between these two places, and these schools have been very successful and have become an annual part of their religious program. It is anticipated that in New Wilmington and New Castle these will also become annual events so that those starting in this year's classes may accumulate enough credits over the coming years to receive a diploma.

Notices have been sent to all Sabbath school superintendents of the county and the district presidents urging that this school be given wide publicity so that as many of the leaders, workers and members may take advantage of this opportunity to receive some practical and helpful instruction in the modern and advanced methods of more efficient teachings. Dr. Wellburn makes his courses both instructive and inspirational, and, as Dr. Bennett stated, "The Sabbath school teachers of Lawrence county continually need added inspiration and instruction in order to meet the growing demands for more efficient and consecrated teaching."

Schooley's Affairs Before Grand Jury

District Attorney Park To Probe Situation In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—The District Attorney's office today set legal machinery in motion to bring before the October grand jury the affairs of the city treasurer's office following revelations that Roy D. Schooley, suspended by Mayor Charles H. Kline, had deposited $290,000 of municipal funds in the closed Franklin Savings and Trust Company without security as required by law.

Meanwhile, Arthur Burgoyne chief investigator for the city treasury's office, who two weeks ago was alleged to have exhibited $125,000 in "mystery Bonds" to city controller James P. Kerr as security for the Franklin Deposit, was mysteriously missing as were the bonds.

Schooley Is Ill

The bank deposit included $125,000 in city funds and $165,000 which Schooley, as delinquent tax collector, received for the city. Schooley was suspended by Mayor Kline following an explanation of his activities as city treasurer.

While Schooley lay ill in bed, unable to appear before city officials, Controller Kerr was conducting an independent audit of his office. It was expected that Judge Frank P. Patterson would be asked to charge the October grand jury that it should include a thorough investigation of Schooley's affairs as city treasurer, delinquent tax collector and treasurer for the school board.

For the sake of the youngsters, it might be well to explain that speakeasies got their name when it was necessary to operate them secretly.

Coudersport Man Renamed Roosevelt Highway Leader

(International News Service)

WELLSBORO, Pa., Oct. 17.—Monta C. Burt, of Coudersport, Pa., and E. O'Neill Kane Jr., of Kane, Pa., continued in office today as president and vice president, respectively, of the Roosevelt Highway Association.

The officers were re-elected at the annual meeting here. President Burt reappointed the following: F. E. Hogan, Kane, treasurer; Raymond B. Gibbs, Scranton, secretary; H. J. Rice, Smethport, field secretary.

Delegates representing scores of cities and towns in the state attended the meeting and joined in a discussion of plans for improving the Roosevelt Highway, U. S. Route No. 6. Advertising and extension of the road were among the projects before the meeting.

The Route now stretches five thousand miles from near Boston to near Denver, and members of the association expect it will be extended to the Pacific coast within a few years.

Philip H. Dewey, secretary of internal affairs, was represented among the speakers by H. Herman Knisely, director of the bureau of municipal affairs.

Honorary memberships in the association were voted to Gov. and Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, Paul D. Wright, former state highway commissioner, and representative George Williams, of Wellsboro.

Delegates will be sent to the Chicago - Cleveland Pike Association meeting at Toledo when the formation of a National Highway Association will be discussed.

Wins In Primary On Toss Of Pill

Supervisor Of Township Candidate Named As Pill Is Shaken From Box

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17—Dan Lardin won the Republican nomination for supervisor of Frazer township on the toss of a pool "pill", the County Bureau of Elections announced today.

Lardin and Joseph Hrievnack each received 102 votes for the Republican nomination. The tie was broken at the county bureau of elections yesterday afternoon with a game of "pill pool."

Both candidates rolled one of the small balls or "pills" from a bottle shaped container. Each "pill" was numbered and the lowest number rolled proclaimed the winner.

Ammunition Train Boys Will Gather

Local Members Of World War Unit Plan To Attend Meeting In Columbus

Arrangements are being made by members of the 308th Ammunition Train, who were members of the 81st and 32nd Divisions during the World War, to attend the annual reunion, which will be held in Columbus, O., during the early part of November.

The reunion was held in New Castle two years ago, and drew a delegation of veterans.

There are approximately 70 members of the 308th in New Castle, and a great number of them are expecting to go to Columbus for the annual gathering.

VERDICT RETURNED AGAINST ABE LEVINE

The jury in the case of Rufus C. McKinley, attorney in fact for Anna Levine against Abe Levine, which was tried before Judge Hildebrand, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1,509.27. The action was to collect rent alleged to be due for a building in Mahoningtown in which Abe Levine, with others was interested.

Credit Bureau To Plan For Election

Will Make Arrangements For Annual Meeting During Coming Week

Plans for the annual meeting and election of officers of the New Castle Credit Exchange will be made at a meeting of the Board of Directors, which will be held in the form of a noon luncheon in the Colonial coffee shop, Thursday.

Nominations will be made and all arrangements for the annual meeting to be held in the near future will be outlined.

BUS OWNER SEEKS ALIMONY SLICING

(International News Service)

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 17. — Business is so bad, O. L. Beatty averred in a petition before the Fayette county court today, he can't pay as much alimony as he formerly did. Beatty, bus line operator, was ordered to pay his wife $160 a month when he was divorced five years ago, later the amount was cut to $125 a month. Beatty asks a further slash, claiming he cannot afford to repair his vehicles and that the bus business is bad.

FORMER U. S. AGENT CHARGES FRAME UP

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 17.—George H. Wilkins, formerly a special agent for the government here, will go on trial October 22 before Federal Judge Kennerly on five counts charging him with accepting bribes and extortion.

Wilkins claims he was "framed."

"Back in 1926," explained Wilkins, "I got into a gun fight with a bunch of Galveston Italians, and they swore they'd get me. I believed them and took out for Mexico.

"When department of justice men arrested me in San Antonio September 4, I couldn't realize what had happened. I'd never heard of the indictment against me. It wasn't brought until November, 1926, and I left before that."

NOTES OF TROOP "F" 103RD CAVALRY OF NEW CASTLE

Technical problems similar to the ones studied last week will be discussed at the drill Sunday. Lieuts Reed and Mitchell will each be in charge of platoons.

Beginning with the V. F. W. parade and continuing throughout the winter guardsmen will wear their uniforms at drills. Those without the woolens are ordered to come to the armory and be supplied.

Noted Speaker Will Speak To Women

Mrs. E. H. McCauley Of Beaver Will Address Club On Tuesday Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17. — At the Woman's Club meeting to be held at the Ellwood Country Club on Tuesday, October 20, Ellwood City women are to have an opportunity to hear a woman widely known in the civic and political life of the state. Mrs. E. H. McCauley of Beaver has long been active in educational and civic affairs of her own city and county, having been the only woman member of the Beaver Board of Education and a leader in the League of Women Voters. She had the distinction also of having served as director of the State Department of Welfare during Gov. Fisher's administration. More recently she has attended the White House Child Welfare Conference and the International Mental Hygiene Conference also held in Washington. Mrs. McCauley is an experienced and interesting speaker.

It is expected that representatives of the New Castle and Wampum Women's Clubs will be guests at this meeting. Mrs. Richard Hawkes chairman of the social committee of the local club is in charge of transportation. Anyone who is desirous of attending this meeting may secure transportation to the Country Club either by calling Mrs. Hawkes or by being at the Elks Club on Crescent avenue by 2:15 on the day of the meeting. This is on open meeting.

PARTY FOR MRS. ANNA MAIN

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—As a courtesy to Mrs. Anna Main of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been a guest of friends and relatives in this vicinity for several weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stevens of Park Gate pleasantly entertained a number of her former friends and relatives at their home last evening.

Mrs. Main, who was formerly Miss Anna Stevens of this city, was again reunited with many of her former friends and acquaintances and the evening was spent most informally with reminiscences of her early life in this vicinity.

Original and novel were the Hallowe'en decorations and appointments used about the dining room when the hostess served a tempting collation.

The Eyes Have It

While beautiful feminine faces and figures have been judged many times in contests to determine championship pulchritude, Paris has just completed a successful "Most Beautiful Eyes of Paris" competition. Nobody can deny that Mlle. Nine Robert (above) has orbs that ought to win any contest in which they're entered—and they did win!

Veterans Elect Officers Friday

Sons Of Veterans And Auxiliary Name Officers For Coming Term

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—The ladies' auxiliary and the Sons of Veterans held a joint meeting last night in the Schweiger hall at which the election of officers was the feature. In the men's meeting Lawrence Francis was chosen as commander, A. A. Logue as senior vice, Reed Hogue as junior vice, Emmanuel Evans, Jr., as treasurer, Clyde Sarver as camp count and Carl Stevens as the installing officer.

The ladies' election resulted as follows: President, Anna Kelley; vice president, Mae Francis; chaplain, Genevieve Duncan; patriotic instructor, Ellwood Kelley; treasurer, Margaret Kelley; guide, Birdie Smith; assistant guide, Stella Francis; color guard, Mrs. Campbell; color guard No. 2, Mrs. Anna Gallagher; inside guard, Margaret Francis; trustees, Emma Francis; delegates to convention at Harrisburg, Genevieve Duncan and Anna Kelley; national delegate, Ida Duncan.

An interesting social period was held after the election.

Union Meetings Are Transferred

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—On Sunday evening the evangelistic meetings which were held in the Providence Baptist church will be transferred to the North Sewickley Presbyterian church. A large attendance has filled the church almost nightly during the past week. A much greater week is anticipated.

The list of speakers for the week are announced as follows:

Sunday evening—Rev. Ruteledge, Providence Baptist.

Monday and Tuesday—Rev. H. A. Bruder, pastor of First U. P. church, Moundsville, West Va.

Thursday—Rev. W. O. Miller, pastor of the Grace Reformed church, Sharpsville, Pa.

Friday—Rev. G. O. Rumsnyder, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Gibsonia, Pa.

A combined choir of the two congregations will conduct the praise service and begins at 7:45 each evening.

Mrs. Swogger Buried Friday

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—The First Baptist church of Ellwood City was filled to overflowing Friday afternoon as the last earthly rites were held for Mrs. Eliza Viola Dean Swogger.

Rev. A. L. Warren was the officiating minister and was assisted by Dr. C. H. Bell, both of whom spoke most feelingly of the many good works of Mrs. Swogger in her long career of nursing.

The American Legion and auxiliary as well as the nurses' organizations attended the services in a body and said farewell to one whom they held in the highest esteem. Mrs. Swogger was entirely surrounded by gorgeous floral tributes, which were sent in sympathy by sorrowing relatives and friends.

The firing squad of the American Legion gave the last salute as the body was lowered to its resting place in Harlansburg cemetery by the longing hands of American Legion members.

BOB-O-LINK TROOP

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—The Bob-O-Link Girl Scout troop of this city held its regular meeting in its rooms in the First Baptist church last night. Miss Dorothy Tomb, local scout director; Miss Nelson, northside troop leader and new assistant of the troop, Miss Walters were present on the occasion.

The troop made some plans for its Hallowe'en party to be held on October 23 at the church. Some plans for various Christmas gifts were also made at this time.

Driver Not To Blame In Death Of W. Jennings

August Morella Is Exonerated By Coroner's Jury At Inquest Last Night

JENNINGS WALKED IN FRONT OF CAR

ELLWOOD CITY, Pa., Oct. 17.—That the death of William Jennings, colored, was the result of an unavoidable accident, was the verdict of a jury empanelled by Coroner J. P. Caldwell, at an inquest held at city police headquarters last night.

Jennings was struck by a car driven by August Morella on the evening of October 7, dying in the Ellwood City hospital on October 8.

Morella testified at the inquest that he was driving down Wampum avenue in the direction of Wampum at about 7:30 p. m. He was alone in the car. Suddenly he saw a man walking toward him and about six feet from the right side of the concrete. Morella said he applied his brakes, and drew his car over to the left, but that the man also stepped in the same direction and directly in front of his car. The man was hit by the right front fender and knocked to the pavement.

Morella said that he was driving his car at not over 25 miles per hour at the time. He pulled off to the side of the road and assisted in getting the injured man taken to the hospital. Morella said that he could have easily passed the man had he not stepped over in the direction the car was moving.

William Cosgrove, Edward Caldwell and James Cook, were coming from Wampum toward Ellwood City, and were a couple of hundred feet from the scene of the accident at the time it occurred. They all testified that while they could not see Jennings on the road, they had observed the Morella car swerve to the left, and immediately afterwards had heard the crash. They had assisted in taking the injured man to the hospital. The Morella car, they said, was parked across the road, almost opposite to where the man was lying when they arrived on the scene.

Hank Bartle testified that he was riding a motorcycle from Wampum to Ellwood City on the evening of the 7th, and saw a man ahead of him on the road. The man was going in the direction of Ellwood City. When witness turned out to pass him he said that the man stepped out toward his machine as though he wanted to be hit. Bartle narrowly escaped striking him. He learned that the man was Jennings and that he had been cutting corn that day near Chewton and was on his way home to Ellwood City.

George Zeigler, testified that he was driving toward Ellwood City on the evening of the 7th and had almost struck a man who was walking on the road. He said that the man made no effort to get off when he sounded his horn. He looked back and believed that he saw him stagger.

Carman Lapardo testified that he was driving in the direction of Ellwood City and saw Jennings walking ahead of him in the same direction. Witness sounded his horn to pass, but Jennings, instead of getting off the road, stepped toward the path of the car. Lapardo said that he drove his left wheels entirely off the concrete to avoid hitting him.

None of the witnesses was able to account for the actions of Jennings. Some thought that he might have been drinking. It was also learned that Jennings had been shell shocked in the World War, and he suffered dizzy spells, and at times did not appear to be normal.

There was no evidence that showed any negligence or recklessness on the part of August Morella, driver of the car which hit Jennings, and he was exonerated.

The jury was composed of Carl C. Davidson, Clyde B. Houk, Ray H. Aylesworth, R. R. Wilson, A. J. Howell and George B. Wilson.

Weather Does Not Mar Union Services

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—The heavy rain yesterday did not lessen the interest manifest in the Union Evangelistic services held in the Providence Baptist church each evening this week.

The beautiful old church, in its 130th year of organization was filled to the doors, while the reverent eager congregation listened to the Rev. Seth Cobb of the Harmony Baptist church on the New Castle road, his subject was "Feliz's evasion of the issue," the message was pointed and powerful.

Special music given by a trio from the Second Presbyterian church of Butler, was in perfect harmony with the spirit of the meeting.

The services will be continued all next week at the Presbyterian church on the hill commencing on Sabbath evening at 7:15. Prayer service to precede song and worship.

Rev. J. R. Routledge will deliver the message.

Many cars now have a device that keeps them from going back on a hill, but they still go back when you miss an installment.

Class Members Enjoy Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—About 45 members of the Happy Hour class of the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church, dressed in their Hallowe'en costumes, assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sharp Johns at Wayne Stop for a fine Hallowe'en party. The home was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

Various games and contests featured the evening. Some of the costumes were extremely clever. At a late hour some delicious refreshments were served by the hostess much to the satisfaction of those present.

DAMES OF MALTA

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 17.—The Dames of Malta lodge of this city held its regular meeting last night in the K. of P. hall with a fine representation of members being present on the occasion. Several visitors from New Castle were also present, among them being Mrs. Jennie Thompson, deputy; Mrs. Emery, former deputy; Mrs. Crepps and Mrs. Carr.

A delicious tureen dinner inaugurated the events of the evening, which was followed by lodge at 8 o'clock. Routine business matters were discussed at the time and the initiation of candidates took place. Plans for an initiation for the next meeting and a card party were also discussed.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

INDIAN WOMAN TO SPEAK HERE

Daughter Of Native Methodist Bishop Of India To Be At Methodist Church

Miss Theodora Chitambar, daughter of the Methodist native bishop of India, will be the guest speaker at the Mahoning M. E. church on Sunday morning, according to announcement by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Downing.

This native of that interesting country will tell of the life there, the work being done by the workers from the churches here, the everyday occurrences in India that are so interesting to people of this part of the world.

Miss Chitambar will speak after the opening of the morning service at 11 o'clock.

GUEST SPEAKER HERE LAST NIGHT

A very practical and a sermon very appropriate to the times was delivered by Rev. W. F. Byers of New Wilmington, Friday evening at the Mahoningtown Persbyterian church.

It was a sermon preparatory to communion and was commenced at about 7:45.

Observations In 7th Ward

The children of the Crawford Oakridge children's home, who attend the Lawrence school have evidently received instructions not to walk along Atlantic avenue and N. Liberty street to the school. They all make the journey on top of the embankment and are therefore quite safe. A special gate has been built in one of the fences for these children to pass through, coming and going from school.

J. A. Prater of Wabash avenue found another addition to his collection of old time implements yesterday. It is an old iron apparatus used by his great-grandmother to pare apples. It is in fine condition except for lack of a blade and Mr. Prater claims that it will pare an apple better than it can be done by hand.

Already the hunting enthusiasts are talking of deer. That was the subject under discussion at the seventh ward fire station yesterday afternoon. It seems that deer stories can rival the most famous (or infamous) of fish stories.

VISIT RELATIVES

Perry and James Wood, of Pittsburgh, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston of this ward Thursday.

NEW CASTLE DEFEATS WOODWARD, 38-0

REVISED LINEUP WORKS SMOOTHLY FRIDAY NIGHT

J. Uram Stars For Local Eleven With Three Touchdowns—Revised Lineup Functions Well—Woodward Eleven Is Outclassed Throughout—Game Is Played In Rain—New Castle Works Double Pass With Success Repeatedly On Visitors—Rambo, Deep And DeCarbo Score Other Tallies For Local Red And Black Grid Machine. Woodward Carries Oval To 9 Yard Mark In Final Period But Loses Pigskin On Downs—Thomas, Crisci Play Well On Line—Kominic And J. Uram Good In Backfield—Kudlinski, Kokocinski And Friedman Prove Best Bets For Losers.

Facing their opponents with a revised lineup that functioned smoothly, the Red and Black gridders of New Castle high easily defeated a fighting eleven of Woodward high of Toledo, Ohio, Friday night at Taggart Field in the final night game of the season. The final score was 38-0.

Due to rains which fell on the field at the start of the setto and during the encounter, the game was played on a muddy field. Some 2,500 fans turned out to see a much improved New Castle combination prance off the field with an overwhelming victory over the Ohioans. John Uram, speed merchant who scored three of the local team's six touchdowns on double passes was an outstanding star of the game.

Revised Lineup.

The backfield found three new faces. Burns was started at left halfback and Rambo took care of the interference halfback post. Kominic, who made an impressive showing in the past two games, took the field at fullback. J. Uram remained at his old post at quarterback. This eleven played well from start to finish.

First Quarter Tie.

Exchanging punts in numerous instances the two teams battled to a standstill in the opening quarter. New Castle kicked off to Kudlinski. Woodward soon punted. After failing to gain on one play DeCarbo booted for New Castle. During the latter part of the period Kudlinski punted to J. Uram on the 32. A double pass Rambo to Burns netted three yards as the opening quarter ended. Woodward played heads up football in the first quarter. Another double pass at the start of the period, Rambo to Uram through left, was good for three more yards.

DeCarbo for New Castle kicked to Kokocinski who fumbled on the 28-yard mark. A New Castle man recovered. Due to the resemblance of uniforms it was some time before it was known just who recovered. New Castle pushed the ball six more yards on the next play on a double pass, Rambo to Uram. Rambo tried a fake double pass and registered three yards. Kominic bucked the line for a first down.

J. Uram scored on the next play on a double pass around left from Kominic. He ran 18 yards over the goal line for the first New Castle score. Kominic hit the line for the extra point. Score: New Castle 7, Woodward 0.

During the latter part of the second quarter the locals again scored. After Woodward failed to make any headway it decided to boot the oval. A fake double double pass by Rambo and two more double passes, Kominic to Uram around left, brought the oval to the 28.

A double pass Kominic to Uram netted seven more yards. Hileman was injected into the game in place of Thomas and McIvor replaced Burns. McIvor heaved a short pass to Uram for a first down. This brought the ball to the 11-yard line. Another double pass Kominic to Uram through left tackle resulted in the second New Castle score on the next play.

McIvor tried a pass for the extra point but failed. It was only a short time after this that the whistle sounded, ending the quarter. The half ended with New Castle on top 13-0.

Score Two More.

Although New Castle came thru with two more touchdowns in the third period the quarter was rather slow. After DeCarbo booted to DeShelter at the start of the third period, Woodward tried three plays without much success and elected to kick. Kudlinski tried to kick but New Castle blocked and recovered on the 10-yard mark. After a double pass Kominic to Uram and a plunge by Kominic failed to take the oval over, Rambo tried his luck and on the next play mowed his way through the line for the third touchdown.

Rambo also annexed the extra point through the line. Score: New Castle 20, Woodward 0. Woodward appeared to be putting plenty of fight into the contest but for some reason or other could not solve the intricate plays of the local eleven. It was only in a few instances that the local backs failed to make any gains.

Wodward took the oval at the kickoff, attempted three plays found the going too unsteady and booted to safety. J. Uram was downed in midfield. That same old double pass which was baffling the Polar Bears during the first two periods appeared to be fooling the Toledo boys continuously. Several yards was the result of a double pass Kominic to Uram on the next play. Rambo hit the line for a first down to bring the oval to the 30-yard mark.

Quarterback Uram called for another double pass on the next play. He took the pigskin from Kominic and zigzagged his way through the Woodward team for the fourth touchdown. The interference Uram received paved the way for the 30-yard run. New Castle tried to hit the line for the extra point but failed.

After completing a few more plays the third quarter whistle blew, with Woodward in possession of the ball on the New Castle's 40. Score, New Castle 26, Woodward 0.

Visitors Threaten

Coming out of a huddle with much pep the Woodwardians opened with a fast attack in the final period and had the ball in the scoring zone. Kudlinski ran back and was getting ready to pass when he changed his mind and ran right end for 24 yards. Friedman hurled a pass to Reichlin which was successful. Reichlin was downed on the 9 yard mark. Kudlinski tried the center of the line on the next play but gained one yard.

On the fourth down Woodward attempted another pass, Friedman to Katafiasz but this failed. This was the only time the Woodward team threatened to score. After New Castle booted to safety. After this, Coach Bridenbaugh injected a number of second and third stringers.

It was the combination of the second and third stringers that scored the fifth and sixth touchdowns in the final three minutes. McIvor was headed for a touchdown when he fumbled the ball after making about 15 yards. Woodward recovered. Kudlinski tried a long pass in the hope of scoring but the ball was caught by DeCarbo. Lane ran left to the 33. Two passes by McIvor proved unsuccessful. Woodward took the ball on downs.

Kudlinski fumbled on the next play and New Castle recovered. McIver hurled a pretty pass to Deep who caught the pigskin behind the goal line for the fifth touchdown. It was a 13 yard pass. Deep had been injected into the game only a short time before. A pass for the extra point was unsuccessful.

New Castle punted to DeShetler on the 34. After one pass failed, DeShetler tried a second pass which was intercepted by Mike DeCarbo

Shenango Eleven Topples Mercer, 14-0

East New Castle Gridders Annex Victory In Heavy Rain

Arnold And Brown Score For Winners; T. Sutton, Patton Star

Despite a heavy rain the Shenango high school football team continued to play the same kind of football that has carried it through victorious in several contests this season and as a result came through with a decisive 14-0 victory over the Mercer high eleven Friday afternoon on the Shenango field.

After battling to even terms during the majority of the initial period the Shenango team took advantage of a "break" and came through with their first touchdown. Patton, of Mercer, heaved a pretty pass to one of his team mates but Arnold, plucky Shenango left half, snatched the oval on the 40 yard mark and raced the remainder of the distance of the field for the first score.

Arnold attempted to hit the line for the extra point but the attempt proved futile. Presenting a strong attack in the second quarter the Blue and Gold combination crossed the Mercer countians goal line again. After bringing the oval to the 40 yard line, Brown broke loose through the line and raced the 40 yards for the second score. He attempted to plow his way through the line but failed for extra point.

Score Safety

The half ended with Shenango leading the caravan by a 12-0 score. A determined Mercer aggregation took the field in the third period. In the shadow of the goal line, Mercer atempted three plays which failed to gain any yardage.

On the fourth and final down Patton prepared to pass from behind his own goal line but a Shenango player broke through the line and tackled the Mercer gridder before he had an opportunity to dispose of the ball, giving Shenango a safety. A safety counts two points.

This was all the scoring that took place during the remaining quarter. The final score favored Shenango 14-0. In the second quarter the Mercerites threatened to score, but failed. Mercer carried the oval to the 20 yard mark where the East New Castle gridders buckled down and held the visitors. During the remainder of the game Mercer did not come close to scoring.

The victory was the fourth of the season. The next contest for the Shenango team will find the East New Castle team opposing the Bessemer eleven on the Shenango field. For Shenango the playing of Brown and Arnold in the backfield and Craig and Polenick on the line was outstanding. T. Sutton and Patton proved the best bets for the losers.

Shenango 14		Mercer 0
Polenick	L E	R. Sutton
Craig	L T	Ingrahams
Shaffer	L G	D'Angio
Frengel	C	Black
R. Lechner	R G	Stewart
Lochner	R T	Masson
Weir	R E	Robinson
Reciznick	Q B	Ringer
Arnold	L H	Patton
Seetch	R H	Nickum
Brown	F B	T. Sutton

Substitutions: Mercer, Cousins; Shenango: A. Hordig, G. Lechner, Booher, Marshall, Daugherty, McConahy, H. Hordig, Cotton, Kinda, Surgy.

Touchdowns: Shenango, Arnold, Brown: Mercer 0.

Umpire: Bruce.

Headlinesman: McIntosh.

RELIEF PLANS MADE

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 17.—Plans were complete here today for incorporation of Grove City's relief workers, to form a permanent organization for aiding the distressed and unemployed. The relief group plans to raise $10,000 by November 23 this year for its work.

Sets New Mile Mark

Jules Ladoumegue, idol of the French sporting public, is shown racing across the finish line after setting a new world's record for the mile run in Paris. In one of the greatest races in the history of track athletics, he completed the distance in four minutes 9 1-5 seconds to clip one and one-fifth seconds from Nurmi's old mark. Ladoumegue now holds six world records.

Former Owner Of Cubs Is Called

Charles Webb Murphy, Former Owner Of Chicago Cubs Dies In Windy City

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Victim of a stroke; Charles Webb Murphy, former owner of the Chicago National League Cubs, was dead today. He was 63 years old. He owned the Cubs for eight years, during two of which, 1907 and 1908, they were World Champions. His association with the Cubs began in 1905 when, with the financial backing of Charles P. Taft, late Cincinnati publisher, he purchased a controlling interest in the club.

Slippery Rock To Play At Bessemer

Bessemer and Slippery Rock high school football teams clash this afternoon at Bessemer. It will be the fourth game of the season for the Bessemer team. They have lost one and won two games. Bessemer has been hoping to break through Slippery Rock's strong line and stop their fast backfield, according to Coach Fredericks.

SIDELIGHTS ON GAME

In spite of bad weather, there was a good crowd on hand to witness the game, and for the first time in several weeks, the fans had plenty to cheer about.

Don't think that Woodward had such a terrible team, they didn't. New Castle's foes looked every bit as good as Washington and Charleroi, but the local lineup was revamped during the past week, and a new formation was used in the backfield, which Woodward didn't know anything about.

Woodward, in fact, had the New Castle boys with their backs to the wall during the greater part of the first quarter. After receiving the kickoff, they immediately kicked and the ball came to rest around New Castle's 20 yard line. When New Castle kicked back, Woodward took the ball in midfield, and then invaded New Castle's territory, but could not gain consistently. Another kick brought the ball back near New Castle's ten yard line and things looked desperate.

The breaks of the game gave New Castle its first touchdown. Kokocinsky fumbled DeCarbo's kick in his haste to snatch the ball from the air and run it back, and in a trice there were three or four New Castle men on top oof it. It was then that New Castle's new offense began to function, and in a few plays, Uram was over the goal line after a 15-yard sprint for a touchdown.

During the second quarter of the game, an amusing thing happened. Time was called out and the players on both sides gathered in a huddle. The boys were pretty well warmed up and their clothes were wet from the drizzling rain. A great cloud of vapor arose from their steaming bodies, and hung suspended above them.

It was the last night game of the season and all future contests will be played on Saturday afternoon.

New Castle's second string boys were every bit as good as the first. In the last quarter, an entire new team with one or two exceptions was facing the invaders, and they made two touchdowns. After blocking a Woodward punt, a forward pass was hurled to Deep who touched the ball down behind the goal line. An instant later, DeCarbo snatched one of Woodward's passes from the air and raced about forty yards for a touchdown.

The senior high band was augmented by Miss Eva Coulter's Ben Franklin musicians, who played between halves. No parade onto the field was attempted because of the wet field.

New Castle did not try to boot the point after touchdown, forward passes or line plunges being used to try and annex the extra point. Only two were successful out of six attempts.

Expect Army To Defeat Harvard

Army Eleven Primed For Important Battle With Harvardians Today

HARVARD HAS SPLENDID TEAM

By FRANK G. MENKE
International News Service Sports Editor

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 17.—A bevy of refined young men, wearing the imprint "Harvard" on their fair faces, skulked into town today in search of potential army officers, being urged by the wicked desire to trap them and bash them loose from their intellects with an oval weapon, entirely surrounded by the hide of a departed pig.

"Oh, yeah? Well, somebody show them the gate and get 'em inside—just let 'em get inside."

"I'll lead 'em and precedent will be with us in our onslaught," shorted Head Coach Eddie Casey of those Harvardians, as he rallied his men and directed the swoop into Michie Canyon, where the Army waited, tense and grim.

Unbeaten on Army Soil

Today was the first time that Harvard has invaded the plains of West Point in a generation. But they tangled often on the heights here in the years long ago, and it says in the record books that Harvard never lost on West Point soil, which brings precedent into existence so that Casey can count heavily for triumph this afternoon.

Gifted minds, atuned to footballing as it should be footballed, have come to conclude that "Army has a slight edge".

Harvard is presumed to have one of those outfits which goes clattering into action, hits like Ruth, runs like Martin and throws like a 16-inch shell. Despite its "greenness" they simply have not any poise, these Harvardians of 1931, and they run helter-skelter and very much amuck when the occasion arises, and often when it does not. They read somewhere that Napoleon said no army ever could win on defense, and so they are in the habit of pushing their nozzles forward and chasing right after the aforesaid ozone sniffers, regardless.

Field Hockey Is Added To Sports For College Coeds

Miss Love Introduces New Sport To Campus For Girls

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 17.—Field hockey has been added to the intra-mural sports program for co-eds at Westminster College, Miss Nadeen Love, director of physical education for women, announces.

Technique of passing and general principles of field hockey are taught in regular classes. An invitation has been extended all girls in college to participate in the new sport. Class teams will probably be organized, and an intra-mural schedule will be played.

Miss Love also announces that field hockey will be the sport until cold weather arrives. Then indoor sports will be followed. Volley ball teams will be organized first. Later on, basketball will occupy the co-ed athletes.

Next Spring, indoor baseball will be started, and when weather permits outdoor mushball will feature the co-ed sports schedule.

Dukes-Georgetown Play To Deadlock

Wet Muddy Field At Pittsburgh Keeps Duquesne And Georgetown From Scoring

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—A muddy field was blamed today for the scoreless tie played here last night between Duquesne university and Georgetown. The Dukes claimed a moral victory, having run up nine first downs to their opponents' seven.

Outweighed, and ruling the underdog before the game, the Duquesne team put up a spirited battle and had the ball in enemy territory thruout the contest.

TOWNSEND-WALKER BATTLE TO DRAW

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 17—Billy Townsend's Eastern invasion was pulled up somewhat short today. The Vancouver welterweight beat up Pauline Walker of Trenton in Madison Square Garden last night but the referee and judges handed him a draw verdict at the end of ten rounds.

Some of the experts gave Townsend seven rounds, Walker two and one even.

Basketball Leagues Formed As Playing Time Is Nearing

Final organization of A and B leagues in the Church Basketball League schedule for the winter work of the Y. M. C. A. was announced today by Henry T. MacNichols, physical director. The two leagues will consist of 18 teams in all, eight in the A league and 10 in the B league.

Start of practice will be on November 9, with teams going through their schedule preliminary training.

At the registration meeting held last Thursday players were given contracts which are to be filled out, signed and returned at the next meeting, to be held on October 29.

A list of active as well as inactive players should be turned over to MacNichols by managers or representatives of teams.

Speaking of the leagues just organized, MacNichols said:

"The eight teams in the A league appear to be one of the strongest set-ups we have ever found in this city. The 10 teams in the B league are all perfectly matched, as far as competition is concerned."

Eastern Teams Will Get Test

Yale, Princeton And Harvard Will Get Testing In Grid Battles Today

YALE IS PLAYING IN CHICAGO TODAY

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Football today is going to carry a sad message to many big teams of the country but the biggest kick in the plus fours appeared nicely set for the so-called "big three" of the east, Yale, Harvard and Princeton.

Of the three, Yale, playing the University of Chicago, appears to have the best chance for victory. But Chicago surely showed a better machine and more fight against Michigan last week than the blue displayed against Georgia. The day's big upset may be a Chicago victory.

Cornell-Princeton

Harvard is carded to be merely the means of introducing to the fans the real 1931 edition of the Army, perhaps the best team at this writing in the entire nation and certainly the finest eleven in the East. Unless Army wins decidedly today, advance reports on the Cadets have been screwy and the East's great hope for an Army triumph over Notre Dame in New York late next month will simply die like a poor rat in a trap.

Gil Dobie is supposed to have something sweet at Cornell and just for a change is meeting in Princeton a team that will actually test the Red Riders. But Princeton's chances are not much better than Harvard's, for like the Cambridge eleven the orange and black has advanced haltingly and slowly.

In New York City, Dartmouth is slated to give Columbia another beating and Fordham is favored over Holy Cross. Tab this one for Holy Cross has a fine chance to surprise. N. Y. U. should trample Rutgers.

Syracuse-Florida

Among the intersectional battles, Syracuse may be fooled by Florida. The long trip from the south may have weakened the 'Gators but the invaders will take the field generally under-estimated.

In the South, Alabama is only slightly favored over Tennessee, Southern Methodist looks just a trifle better than Rice and Texas may squeeze out a win over Oklahoma.

Georgia, evidently one of the country's leaders, should prevail over North Carolina, Kentucky beat Maryland and Georgia Tech outstruggle Auburn. Vanderbilt may be able to turn back powerful Tulane.

Notre Dame-Drake

In the mid-west Drake has only a small chance against Notre Dame, Michigan is better than Ohio and Purdue has the call over Wisconsin. Southern California, a much superior outfit than given credit for, will flop Oregon at Los Angeles and Stanford is the choice over the Oregon Aggies.

Among the sure winners appear to be Northwestern over University of California, Los Angeles Branch, Penn over Lehigh, Navy against Delaware, Illinois versus Bradley, Colgate over Manhattan and Boston College against Villanova.

Hoover Tosses Wicked Football

President Throws Forward Pass To His Secretary On White House Lawn

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17—Noted for his "wild throws" in tossing baseballs at opening games, President Hoover Friday recovered some athletic prestige by hurling a perfect 'forward pass' to Lawrence Richey, his secretary, while receiving the University of Kentucky's football team on the White House grounds.

The eleven paid their respects to the president and posed with him for a picture. Then the team gave him a football as a gift to his grandson, Herbert Hoover 3rd. The president immediately demonstrated his gridiron ability by throwing a forward pass to Richey. The secretary caught it and romped into the White House for a "touchdown."

Cornell Favored Over Princeton

(International News Service)

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 17.—Cornell banked on a high-class backfield and a line that has not shown up particularly well this season, as Coach Gil Dobie's 1931 edition faced the Princeton Tiger today. Cornell was the favorite.

A cool day, with cloudy skies, was forecast.

Princeton, which will start its first string backfield, spent the night at an inn at Freeville, 12 miles from Ithaca, and was to rest there until game time at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Both teams went through light final workouts late yesterday.

INTRODUCING Coach Fred Dawson

By JACK SORDS

Fred Dawson, who gained fame as the "man who could beat Notre Dame when Notre Dame was unbeatable," this season serves his first year as head football coach at the University of Virginia.

Dawson succeeds Earl Abell at the Cavalier school and, though Fred has done no coaching since 1928 Virginia looks to see some measure of success gained this year as a result of Dawson coaching.

Fred, is best remembered by the football fraternity for his success with Nebraska teams. Under Dawson the Cornhuskers twice humbled powerful Notre Dame machines which, until the Nebraska games, had been unbeaten.

The names of Dawson's four assistants at Virginia this year sound like an All-American roll call. Gus Tebell of Wisconsin, All-American end, will coach the backs: Butch Slaughter of Michigan, All-American guard, is line coach: Gus Welch of Carlisle, All-American quarterback and Roy Randall of Brown, are assistants.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Bucknell and Temple tied at Philadelphia 0-0 yesterday. Temple had several chances to score early in the game but lacked the necessary power to push the ball over. Late in the first period, Zahnow, a halfback raced 57 yards to the six yard line before he was downed. Temple then lost 14 yards on a bad pass from center and was forced to punt. In the second, a pass over the goal line failed. During the last two periods neither team was able to approach the goal line and resorted to punting.

West Virginia Wesleyan beat Dayton U 13 to 7 yesterday and Muskingum downed Bethany 19 to 6. Davis Elkins ran wild against Victor and won 59 to 0 last night at Dexter Park, New York. Five thousand spectators turned out to witness the game.

Warrants have been served on Earl E. Loucks, coach and Jack Stott, assistant coach of Greensburg high school football team after Joseph Craffey of Hecla, former Hurst high school football player claims that the two Greensburg grid mentors beat him up Wednesday after he was caught and charged with spying on the Greensburg squad in secret practice. Charge of aggravated assault and battery were lodged against Loucks and Stott. Both coaches waived hearings and posted $500 bond each. Although the coaches deny they "manhandled" Craffey in any way, they admit that they took from his evidence which indicated that the former Hurst gridder was spying on the Greensburg team. All of this will help to bring out a big crowd today as Hurst plays Greensburg.

Playing in a sea of mud and a driving rain yesterday at New Bethlehem, Pa., Newton beat Falls Creek high 31 to 0. The score however, was not the feature but rather the 90 run for a touchdown on the kick-off by Ross Smith.

They don't scrimmage, they don't get away for 50 yard runs and they do not hear the favorable roar of the multiutde in their ears as the result of their scoring touchdowns but the Senior high and the Ben Franklin bands certainly deserve a lot of credit for their support of football. On two occasions the teams have marched through driving rains to the football game and have played throughout the contests.

Mickey Hazuda, Masury, O., will turn professional after serving two years in the amateur ranks according to word from Sharon today. It is said that Mickey will either join with Jimmy Dunn of Cleveland or Jimmy Dime of this city.

Boston University football team scored a victory over the "player control" system advocated by Dr. Frederick Rogers, dean of physical education, according to reports today from Boston where Geneva plays Boston U. The dean wanted the team to oppose Geneva with Coach Hilary Mahaney in the stands and the team directed by the captain.

The players appointed a committee of protest, led by James Truden, tackle and Arthur French, student manager, and Coach Mahaney announced after practice Friday the game would be played under the "old system." Dean Rogers is on a speaking tour in the west. Reports that the team had threatened to strike and had refused to play under self-direction were denied.

PLAN RECORD DAY AT RURAL CHURCH

Efforts to have a 100 per cent attendance of the 150 members of the Harmony Baptist church Sunday school present for tomorrow's special rally day program, will be climaxed Sunday when the opening exercises begin, Mansford B. Hogue, superintendent, announced today.

The day's program will start at 9:45 o'clock. At 11 o'clock there will be preaching.

One of our most contented American friends says that his only criticism of Christopher Columbus is that he did not settle here.—The Lowell Evening Leader.

on the 30. DeCarbo raced the remaining few yards for the sixth and last touchdown of the game. After a heave failed for the point after touchdown the game ended. Final score, New Castle 38, Woodward 0.

The second and third string gridders played well during the short time they were in the game.

Much improvement was noticed in the New Castle's team last night. The line played better and the backfield was clicking. Woodward was outclassed throughout. The Toledo team never gave up.

The local boys tallied 8 first down to 1 for the visitors. New Castle took to the air 7 times and met with success twice. Woodward tried 9 heaves and completed but 2. Despite the fact that the score was lopsided the game was interesting.

The playing of the entire New Castle team was outstanding. Kokocinski, Kudlinski and Friedman were the best in the backfield for the losers while on the line Harre and Stein were the best. The inclement weather probably spoiled a big crowd which would have attended had the weather been favorable. New Castle's next opponent is Altoona, October 24 here.

New Castle, 38		Woodward Tol. 0.
Ciccone	L.E.	Katafiaz
Crisci (C)	L.T.	Harre
Kazenski	L.G.	Szelegowski
DeCarbo	C.	Michalak

Mike	R.T.	Letke
Nocera	R.E.	Kraft
J. Uram	Q.B.	Kokocinski
Burns	L.H.	Friedman
Rambo	R.H.	Kudlinski (C)
Kominic	F.B.	DeShetler

Score by quarters:

New Castle	0	13	13	12	—38

Schooners Start Annual Race For Supremacy Today

Gertude L. Thebaud And Bluenose Will Battle It Out In Series Of Races

(International News Service)

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 17.— The first race for the Grand Bank championship was to start today along a windy, rain-swept course.

The American challenger, the Getrude L. Thebaud, Gloucester, and the champion, the Bluenose, Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, were in readiness for the report of the gun that was to send them over the starting line.

FIGHT RESULTS

(International News Service)

AT NEW YORK—Billy Townsend, Vancouver welterweight, and Paulie Walker, Trenton, drew (10).

Vince Dundee, Newark middleweight, scored technical kayo over Solly Krieger, New York (8).

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY WILLIAM RITT
Central Press Sports Editor

The Stove League season—that period of baseball armistice in which the sacred soil of the diamonds is churned and pounded into a muddy morass by countless cleats of those football fellows—bids fair to become far more entertaining to Mr. Obadiah K. Fan than was the late but not lamented league campaigns.

Already, the pot simmers and boils with such morsels as these: Will Connie Mack quit? Is Wilbert Robinson really to get the gate? What big league outfit will get Hack Wilson? Who—if not the present incumbents—will manage the Tigers, the Pirates, the Reds and, possibly, several other clubs?

* * *

Hardly had the 821,960 St. Louisians who failed to attend the last game of the world series—they thought their team would lose—had time to begin regretting the fact when the Chicago White Sox disposed of one manager and named another.

Donie Bush, the ex-, met Lew Fonseca, the Portuguese Power House, his successor, at the door of the club offices.

If the White Sox played baseball with such speed the American league pennant would be a fixture at Comiskey park—as it was in the days during and just after the war.

However, much of the Cards' world series winners' share will be spent before we know the answers to the rest of the big league questions.

* * *

Though several of the A's star athletics are quoted as hinting that Mack was going into retirement and Eddie Collins was slated to succeed him as active foreman, it is very doubtful that the Athletics' leader would wish to close his long and brilliant baseball career with a defeat. "He won nine big league titles but he lost his last game"—that's not the kind of epitaph to satisfy old Cornelius.

It's a fairly safe bet that Connie will try once more. He's never won four pennants in a row and he has a fine chance to set that American league mark next year. With it goes a chance at the big league record—seven world series wins.

Nope, Connie's good for one more year, at least.

* * *

There's no sense in trying to predict the fate of Wilbert Robinson as Brooklyn manager. One can never guess what the Brooklyn club—players or the execs—will do.

Hack Wilson is sure to be grabbed by some aspiring National league club. It is doubtful that the Cubs would be willing to see him go to St. Louis, Brooklyn or New York—Chicago's most formidable foes. Boston now trying to get into the first division swim, is a likely customer.

Donie Bush may go to the Tigers if Bucky Harris is dropped. Donie was popular in Detroit as a player and in his day the Bengals were pennant winners. He may be the man to coax a championship some day out of Detroit's crew.

Your guess is as good as anyone's in those other managerial matters.

MOTORCYCLE HITS AUTO; TWO INJURED

ALIQUIPPA, Pa., Oct. 17.—Two men were hurt along the Brodhead road when an automobile, driven by Walter L. Hoffman, Freedom, collided with a motorcycle driven by Joseph L. Lance, 22, of 1020 Milton street, Coraopolis. Lance and a youth named Lees of Coraopolis, were treated for cuts and bruises by a Rochester physician.

Judging from all we read in the papers, the least enthusiastic member of the Newton D. Baker for President Club is Newton D. Baker. —The Rochester Times-Union.

Valiant Effort in Vain

Arms intertwined, it looks as if the two football players, struggling to get a firm grasp on the pigskin would both be defeated in their purpose, but Colvin (left), of Leland Stanford, Palo Alto, Calif., succeeded in catching the forward pass tossed to him and made a gain against the University of Minnesota gridders even though Champlin, of the Gopher team, tried to knock the ball from his hands. Another Minnesota man (right) is endeavoring to mix in the play to break up the pass. Stanford won on the home grounds, 13-0.

MY NEW YORK

BY JAMES ASWELL

By Central Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Wide-eyed wanderings:

Tompkins square, a swarm of youth and the defeated, of Italy and Hungary and Russia and New York . . . Here St. Mark's place, redolent of Naples, if uglier, parallels Seventh street, which abounds in Hungarian signs and Gypsy basement restaurants. . . . The park is crowded, on a Sunday afternoon, with a hundred diametrical destinies. . . . Women in shawls, looking as old as the world, selling immense pretzels, strung on sticks in baby carriages. . . . Sleek young Italians in striped suits and boutonnieres, panicking the tenement girls.

They talk of the Cafe de la Paix as a cosmopolitan focal point, and of the self-conscious sidewalk cafes of Montparnasse, but Tompkins square is vivid with unposed human medley. . . . There are half a dozen such racial potpourris in New York, but this is my favorite. . . . Union square is too full of soap boxes and pale mauve intellectuality.

Take the Russian Carpathian

"I was amazed to hear a radio playing 'Just One More Chance' from somewhere upstairs."

Orthodox Greek church, on the corner of St. Mark's place and Avenue B. . . . Peeking into its Gothic dusk, I was amazed to hear a radio playing "Just One More Chance" from somewhere upstairs. . . And a careless sign announced "Leonardo Da Vinci Art School." . . . A dark-eyed, plumpish model in a brief blue dressing gown whisked by me and scurried upstairs to the life class on the second floor!

That church, one of the oldest in the town, has changed denominations several times in the course of its tumultous history. It has been Episcopalian, Catholic, Lutheran and Greek Orthodox. . . . Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish once owned it and gave it to St. Mark's-in-the-Bowery.

HOP, SKIP AND JUMP

Press agents invariably call you by your first name after one meeting. . . . Ray Perkins' gag: "The country is full of financial acrobats—head over heels in debt." . . . Perkins is the N. B. C. master of ceremonies. . . . This reporter begins a regular weekly broadcast over WGBS 6 to 6:15 p. m. eastern time, Fridays. . . . New York stuff. . . . Called Tex Guinan to get her on with me next Friday, thinking she might be week-ending off the road, but her private phone was reported "temporarily disconnected." . . . That's what they say when you don't pay your bill, but Tex's case is otherwise; she has plenty, they tell me, socked away from night club heydays.

W. R. Burnett, who wrote "Little Caesar," and who is one of the few writers who can make a gangster talk like a gangster instead of a ribbon clerk, is going to do an original talkie. . . . Incidentally, the writing boys have protested about having their identies sunk, in promotion broadsides, under the fanfare about the stars. . . . The result: studios are featuring their scribes more heavily.

Some of those due for fancy language are Edwin Burke, Tom Barry, S. N. Behrman, Guy Bolton, Barry Connors, Al Cohn, William Counselman, William Hurlburt, Phillip Klein, John Peter Leister, William Anthony McGuire, Dudley Nichols, Howard Emmett Rogers, Lynn Starling, Irene Cuhn, Maurine Watkins, Imogene Stanley, Sonya Levien and Dorothy Fletcher.

"ME AND MY SHADOWS"

Those who have seen early movies featuring Marlene Dietrich have been amazed at the unfamiliar and pulmpish contours of the exotic star's features. What they don't know is that the appealing shadows in Marlene's cheeks are not the result of languorous fatigue, nor are they enlarged dimples. They are shaded in with a make-up pencil, radically changing Miss Dietrich's appearance.

Yale Favored To Defeat Chicago

Yale Honors Eminent Alumnus By Sending Eli Team On Mid-Western Soil

ALBIE BOOTH TO LEAD BULLDOGS

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—In honor of its eminent alumnus, Amos Alonzo Stagg, Yale university today for the first time in its history sent a football team on to a middle western gridiron. Captained by their sensational half-pint Albie Booth, the Bulldogs encountered a team versed in the ways of the venerable Stagg, the University of Chicago Maroons.

The game, to be staged at Stagg Field, commemorates the 40th year of the "Old Man's" noble alliance with Chicago's foootball destinies, the oldest coaching career in America.

Each team enters the intersectional struggle with a major loss already to its discredit this season. Last Saturday Yale fell before a powerful Georgia eleven, while two weeks ago Chicago took it on the chin from Michigan.

Yale Favored.

Indications pointed to a triple pass combination composed of Booth, Taylor and Parker with a lineman such as Flygare stepping in to spear the ball now and then.

Coach Stagg's chief reliance for tearing off yards rests with such tried backfield performers as Vin Sahlin and Zimmer. The white-haired tutor will have his son, Paul, waiting at the sidelines for the opportunity to dash in and carry Stagg's banner against his alma mater.

Duck Hunter Killed By Brother; Is Ohio Season's First Victim

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 17.—Peter Mazza, 32, is dead here, probably the first victim of the duck hunting season in Ohio.

He was killed accidentally by his brother about fifteen minutes after the season officially came in at noon Friday.

Peter Mazza and the brother, Evo, 17, were in a boat on Sandusky Bay a short distance off the Cedar Point shore.

"I aimed at a duck," Evo, widely known hereabouts as a lightweight boxer, told Coroner Paul N. Squire. "Pete aimed at another at the same time. "The duck he was aiming at started to fly over his head and he threw his head back just as I pulled the trigger of my gun."

Falls Out Of Boat

The wounded man toppled from the boat. Evo jumped in after him and pulled him back into the craft. Evo rowed to Cedar Point where he put in a call for a doctor and an embulance, unaware that Peter was dead.

When Dr. H. B. Frederick arrived he notified the coroner.

The dead hunter, a foundryman by trade, leaves a widow who, with Evo and the aged mother of the two boys, are under the care of a physician today.

Peter's watch was found to have stopped at 12:15, the time when he fell from the boat.

Notre Dame And Drake Play Today

(International News Service)

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Oct. 17.—With five new faces in the lineup, Coach Heartley "Hunk" Anderson today dispatched his fighting Irish into the Notre Dame Stadium to wage war against the Bulldogs of Drake University.

A lion's share of the Notre Dame offensive was to repose on the modest shoulders of George Melinkovich whose brilliant early-season labors won for him the regular fullback berth hitherto occupied by Steve Banas. Drake has always been a dangerous foe of the Irish, but Notre Dame's warriors trotted to the field, favorites.

EARLY RE-TRIAL WILL BE GIVEN TO MRS. LOWTHER

JEFFERSON, O., Oct. 17.—An early re-trial for Maude Lowther, 23, convicted, sentenced to death and then granted a plea for new trial in connection with the murder of Mrs. Clara Smith, was promised today by Prosecutor Howard Nazor.

Autos Damaged In Street Accidents

Quite A Number Of Accidents Are Reported On City Streets

Leroy J. Johnson of 534 Orchard street, reported that his machine was parked in front of 517 Clayton street, when John Kerr of 912 West Clayton street, ran into and damaged his car.

Thomas J. Bromley of 111 Patterson avenue, reported that he was enroute north on Mill street at the South Mill street bridge and made the stop for the traffic light, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 8526J ran into the rear of his machine, damaging it.

John S. Mottinger of R. D. No. 2, reported that he was going to back out from the south side of the public square, when his machine collided with a machine, the license number of which he did not secure. The bumpers of the machines were damaged.

Thomas Dunkerly of Rigby Post Office, reported that he was enroute south on Moravia street, when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 2H737 going east on the Gardner avenue viaduct failed to observe the stop regulation and hit and damaged his car.

Woman Evangelist Is Near Collapse

Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton Prepares To Continue Services However

(International News Service)

BOSTON, Oct. 17.—On the verge of a physical collapse, Aimee Semple McPherson Hutton, noted evangelist, today went forward with her plans to hold two revivals today.

After holding a healing service yesterday afternoon and preaching to 18,000 persons at Boston Garden last night, Aimee was reported near complete exhaustion as she neared completion of her nine-day revival campaign on Sunday.

Aimee revealed that she had received hundreds of invitations to hold revivals in other cities following her engagement here. She said she had accepted an invitation from Philadelphia.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Railroad And Specialty Stocks Show Gains

By W. S. COUSINS
International News Service Financial Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Further gains in the railroad and specialty stocks; an advance of a dollar a bale in Cotton; firmness in the United States Treasury Bond group and slight gains in selected railroad bonds were the principal features of a dull and quiet week-end market.

The railroad stocks were buoyed up by the better prospect of fourth-quarter freight business as well as the expectation of a favorable decision on freight rates by the commerce commission.

Dupont and General Motors reached the best price levels of the week and many of the favorites sold within a short range of Friday's closing prices.

A wave of profit-taking in the final period wiped out a good portion of the early gains and the market was irregular at the close. United States Steel held steady near the closing bell and finished the week-end session at 68¾, down ⅛. DuPont closed more than a point higher, at 58¾, and General Motors was up ¼ at 25⅝.

Atchison led the activity in the rails and closed with a net gain of ½ at 116¾. Rock Island was up ⅝ at 26¾; New Haven down ⅝ at 44¼; Illinois Central up a point at 30½; Chesapeake and Ohio unchanged at 32⅛; Baltimore and Ohio down ⅝ at 39⅛.

Consolidated Gas, leading the utilities, was unchanged at the close, at 71½. American Tel and Tel was down 1⅛ at 134⅛; American Can down ¼ at 82¾; General Electric up ⅛ at 30; Chrysler Motor down ⅜ at 14⅜; Anaconda Copper up ½ at 12⅝.

JURY IN CAPONE CASE READY FOR DELIBERATIONS

government has to go out and force the collection of taxes, the Army and Navy will disband, courts will be swept aside, civilization will fall and society will revert to the jungle days when every man was for himself."

Johnson traced the early history of Capone starting with the time when the defendant was a bar-tender at Coney Island. Then he said he was next heard of at Jim Colosimo's restaurant in Chicago. All the time, he said, the defendant was becoming more affluent.

"Then we come to 1924 when this gambling establishment in Cicero was shown to have a profit of $300,000" Johnson declared. Even if we take the defense statement that he had only an eight per cent share, his profits would have been $24,000. Let me remind you that the record shows profits of $215,000 in 1925."

Johnson scoffed at the testimony of defense witnesses that Capone lost $327,000 betting on the horses. He referred to them as "so shifty they couldn't look you in the eye."

He reminded the jury that the defense lawyers had talked to them for four hours but made no reference to the money orders sent from Capone's headquarters in the Lexington Hotel in Chicago to Capone in Florida. He declared that the records show that $77,000 was sent and received between Chicago and Florida.

He pointed out that every man who has an income of $5,000 a year must pay an income tax and that it devolved upon Capone to file a tax return which he never did.

Attacks Sincerity

He contented it was apparent from Capone's lavish expenditures that he did have a big income. He called attention to Capone's expenditures for $12.50 underwear, $135 suits and diamond-studded belt buckles for his friends.

Johnson wanted the jury, in deliberating the case, to remember the man and women who pay a tax on incomes above $1,500 a year. He contrasted them with Capone whom he flayed for evading taxes "during this time of national deficit."

Johnson concluded his address with the declaration that the issue was "whether any man could conduct his affairs so that he was above the government."

No Decision Today On Freight Rates

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The interstate commerce commission officially announced it would not hand down its decision today on the petition of the railroads for a 15 per cent increase in freight rates.

This action shattered its traditional practice of withholding all information about pending cases until the decision is actually made public.

Betty Dahl Has Vanished Again

"Other Woman" In Professor Kane Case Has Again Given Reporters Slip

ATLANTIC CITY HOME VISITED

By CHARLES J. McGUIRK
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 17.—The elusive Betty Harris Dahl, "Cinderella of the High Seas" and defense witness in the case of Virginia vs. Prof. Elisha Kent Kane under indictment for the alleged murder of his wife Jennie Graham Kane on Sept. 11 last, slipped through a cordon of reporters here and disappeared again.

The brilliant svelte brunette took a taxicab from her hiding place, an apartment house at 117 South New Jersey avenue, and vanished shortly after noon yesterday while Mrs. Ellen McBride, the proprietor of the apartment, swore by all that's holy that she had never known any such people as Mrs. Dahl or Mrs. John W. Harris her mother.

When reporters from Atlantic City, Philadelphia and New York started to swarm about the place on South New Jersey avenue, Betty again exhibited the cleverness that has kept her an almost mythical figure. She threw up two lines of defense and hid behind them.

P. R. R. Testing Track To Learn System's Best

Prizes Await Selection Of Skilled Judges, Busy Making Rail Checks

Preparatory to the usual fall selection of the prize winning sections of track on the Pennsylvania railroad, maintenance engineers are now engaged in closely checking, by the latest scientifically designed devices, the riding qualities of the track in all parts of the system.

Perhaps the supreme test is made with an ordinary glass of water, filled to within an eighth of an inch of the rim, which must not spill a single drop even of the fastest flyers. This check on track conditions is known in railroad parlance as the "slop test".

In addition to the water tests, Pennsylvania engineers are also using recently designed machines which scientifically record the slightest jar or jolt. Not a jump, swerve or sway escapes the delicate mechanism, operating on finely adjusted springs and recording automatically on a running paper strip the exact condition of the track.

At the close of each test, the track records produced are closely studied by maintenance engineer and the annual awards to the grizzled veterans who keep the rails in line and the road-bed in shape are based on the test results.

Bishop Cannon Refuses To Talk About Indictment

Indicted Bishop Is In Atlanta Attending College Of Methodist Bishops

(International News Service)

ATLANTA, Oct. 17—Bishop James Cannon, Jr., was silent today on the indictment in Washington of himself and Miss Ada L. Burroughs, his secretary-treasurer during the Anti-Smith campaign.

Foresee New Castle As Important Link In New Four Trunk Line Plan

In the petition now before the Interstate Commerce Commission to permit the establishing of four trunk line railroad systems between New York and Kansas City, New Castle seems to be in one of the most favorable spots outside of the large terminal, insofar as possible development and expansion is concerned.

The petition, if granted, would make four major systems, the Pennsylvania the Baltimore and Ohio, the Chesapeake and Ohio and the New York Central would be located upon each of the four, with possibilities of this city being a center for two of them, the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio.

Should the petition be granted, and the Pennsylvania and B. & O. make the development possible under the new allocation of territory larger shops and terminal facilities would undoubtedly be necessary in New Castle.

Under the proposed allocation, the Baltimore and Ohio would get a new right of way into New York City, making it the shortest route between New York and Chicago. This would be done by using the present B. R. & P. trackage to Du Bois, the Buffalo and Susquehanna and the Central of New Jersey directly into New York. This would by-pass Pittsburgh, although Washington routed trains would still operate through there, but on a route that would cut out the present Panther Hollow route that makes it necessary to back into the station.

New Castle Junction is already an important link in the Baltimore and Ohio chain, for this junction is now being used for engine changes on trains through from Cumberland. Should the B. & O. establish a short route east and west, New Castle is the point where it would leave its present right of way to take the short cut.

The Pennsylvania already owns the stock of the Western Allegheny and should the B. & O., open up its new short route through to the east it is not illogical to assume that the Pennsylvania would then open up a new short route, shorter not so much in miles perhaps, as it would be in travelling conditions and lack of congestion.

This would be grading and tracking the western Allegheny through to Redbank or East Brady, and then using the Pennsylvania through to Driftwood and the east, over the Sinnemahoning territory. This would cut out the heavy mountain haule, and run completely around the congestion of Altoona, Pittsburgh and Conway Yards. The fact that the Pennsylvania Railroad appeared before the Public Service Commission when the Perry Highway was being put through and asked for room for double tracks under the highway at Grant City may be significant.

New Castle would be on the Chesapeake and Ohio system inasmuch as the Erie Railroad would be allocated to that system. This might or might not result in some improvement of trackage conditions over the present Erie route. Whatever would be done, the fact still remains that New Castle would be a four way junction point and an important interchange point because of this fact.

All of this is conjectural of course, depending first upon the granting of the four system application, and upon the decision of the roads to make the improvements mentioned. In any event, if the roads do make them, New Castle seems to be in a highly favored spot.

Youthful Robber Shot By Officer

Pittsburgh Policemen Surprise Two Robbers In Grocery Store, Open Fire

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 17.—A youthful robber suspect was shot by a policeman today when he and a companion were discovered allegedly attempting to loot a grocery store.

The wounded man was Albert Stork, 21, shot through the right thigh. Edward Garland, 19, his alleged companion, was held by police.

Patrolmen Emanuel Mori and Joseph Flora, walking their beats, met before the grocery store early this morning. They noticed the two men moving about in the grocery store. Mori fired through the window, wounding Stork. Both suspects were captured when they fled through a rear door.

REPORT TWO DUCK HUNTERS DROWNED

(International News Service)

NEW KENSINGTON, Pa., Oct. 17.—Two duck hunters rowing on the Allegheny river near Creighton were drowned today when their boat capsized, it was reported. Their names were not immediately learned.

According to first reports, both hunters discharged their guns at the same time and losing their equilibrium, upset the boat. They were believed to have lost their lives in a vain attempt to retrieve their guns which fell into the river.

Kills Her Four Children Then Commits Suicide

Reesville, Ohio, Woman Kills Four Children And Self Over Financial Matters

(International News Service)

WILMINGTON, O., Oct. 17.—Authorities today ascribed financial troubles as the motive that led Mrs. Russell Ward, 35, to shoot and kill her four children and then commit suicide at their home in Reesville, near here.

The dead children were Arlene, 11; Audrey, 8; Edith, 7, and Richard, 4.

While her husband was away, the mother went to the village school and brought the children home. Ward found the bodies when he returned.

Prospective Brides, Bridegrooms Advised By Family Institute

Education And Advice On How To Stay Happily Married Given By Social Agency, States Dr. Myers

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education, Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

Last summer I had the honor to lunch with the celebrated biologist, Dr. Paul Popenoe, research director of the Home Betterment Foundation, Pasadena, Cal., and director of the Institute of Family Relations of Los Angeles.

I had read a number of his books, among which are "Modern Marriage" "The Conservation of the Family" and "Applied Eugenics," and had read and heard so much about his pioneer work in regard to family relations that I met him with great eagerness. It was a rare treat to hear him talk. He is a dynamo of energy and enthusiasm. What may surprise you most is that he cherished those basic family ideals which have been dear to many of us and is not in sympathy with the Bertrand Russell kind of marriage theories, and he arrives at his conclusions as a biologist rather than as an idealist.

* * *

Following the luncheon, Dr. Popenoe handed me a reprint from the Journal of Juvenile Research, April issue, entitled, "The Institute of Family Relations." From him personally and from the pamphlet I learned the following:

The department of health, in Vienna, Austria, established in 1922, a clinic for advice on marriage. So successful did this prove that there are now more than 200 such clinics on the European continent, nearly all of which are supported by public taxation.

In our country the first attempt in this direction resulted in the establishment at Los Angeles, on Feb. 3, 1930, of a similar institution, though much broader in character and service, incorporated as a non-profit making philanthropic foundation, under the name, "Institute of Family Relations".

As judge by the reception it has had from the public, from the press, and from other social agencies, it has from the start been a great success. Though the educational program of the institute, many junior and senior high schools of southern California have established courses on education for family life, not merely for girls but for boys as well.

The premarital conference available to those planning to marry, with a course of reading and a physical examination, has been worked out in detail and is gradually widening its usefulness.

One eminent clergyman of Los Angeles advises all couples he marries to go to the institute for advice on how to stay married happily. "So far, however, the greatest demand for help has come from those already married, perhaps for many years, who find some problems that they cannot solve without help," says Dr. Popenoe. "In half of these cases it is the wife who first applies for help, in one-fourth the husband, while in the remaining quarter, some third party enlists the aid of the institute on behalf of relatives or friends."

* * *

Dr. Popenoe is director of the institute. Everything related to the medical profession is handled by a medical director and staff of assistants and consultants. The institute co-operates closely with the Southern California Society for Mental Hygiene. Problems of home management are handled in co-operation with the State Home Economics Association, and legal problems are referred to the University of Southern California.

Already half a dozen other American cities are planning to establish clinics for marriage and family problems after the pattern of the Los Angeles institute. Certainly we parents are exceedingly interested in this promising type of human service.

Editor's Note: Two pamphlets by Dr. Myers may be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to Dr. Garry C. Myers, in care of this paper, or Central Press Association, 1435 East Twelfth street, Cleveland, O. The pamphlets are: "Punishments and Rewards" and "Fear".

Committees On Poppy Day Meet

Details Of Annual American Legion Poppy Sale Are Completed

Detailed arrangements for the annual Poppy Day sale of the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, were completed at a meeting of the committees held in the Legion Home Association Building.

The event will be held on Saturday, November 7, the Saturday immediately preceding Armistice Day. Several hundred girls from the various Junior high schools and the Senior high school will do the selling as has been customary in past years, and will be on the streets from 7 o'clock in the morning until that evening.

In addition, groups of girls will visit the homes throughout the city in the annual appeal for funds for relief work by the American Legion. A committee has been appointed to map out districts, and several girls will visit each district, besides the business and industrial establishments, and the office buildings.

The committee has ordered 12,000 poppies which will be placed on sale on the above named date, and it is hoped to dispose of this number on the coming sale day.

Prizes will be awarded the girls who lead in sales as heretofore, and the customary dance will also be held later in the fall.

Railways Company Asks Permission To Abandon Lines

Erie Railways Company Would Abandon Part Of Trackage In Erie

HARRISBURG, Oct. 17.—The Erie Railways Company today filed applications with the public service commission for permission to abandon portions of two routes in the city of Erie. The company explained that its subsidiary, the Erie Coach Company, was serving part of the territory and proposed to give additional service.

Sections which the railway firm seeks to abandon are on West Fourth street, between State and Cascade streets, and on West 26th street, between Peach street and the terminal at Baur Lane, all in the city of Erie.

The company explained that the tracks on these lines would have to be rebuilt and that the patronage did not justify the expenditure.

Army Deserters Caught At Mercer

Chief Of Police Ringer Catches Two Who Fled From Army Service

MERCER, Pa., Oct. 17.—Chief of Police Ringer has placed under arrest two deserters from the United States Army in the person of Charles Waite of Co. A. 34th infantry. Waite was stationed in Maryland and is said to have deserted through the guard. This is the third time Chief Ringer has arrested Waite and returned him to the Army authorities.

He also arrested Albert G. Murphy, Co. M, 10th Infantry, a Mercer boy. They were returned to Fort Hays near Columbus, Ohio today.

This makes three deserters arrested by Ringer in the past ten days.

The campaign will be in charge of the finance committee composed of Dr. W. G. Buchanan, chairman; W. V. Anderson, Dr. W. W. Richardson, Miss Henrietta Magoffin and Mrs. T. A. Sampson.

Call Conference On Firemen's Fund

Representatives Of Firemen's Relief Organizations To Meet With Council

Upon the result of a conference between representatives of four firemen's relief organizations, said to exist here, and city council, October 20, may depend the payment of approximately $16,000, paid to the city as foreign fire insurance premiums.

This was practically decided when council, in session at the municipal building Friday adopted a motion submitted by Director of Finance W. T. Burns, which invited representatives of each organization and the organization's attorney, to convene with councilmen at 1:30 p. m. October 20, in city hall.

The controversy was brought to a head when a letter from Deputy Auditor-General Wilson to Solicitor Robert White was read during the session. Wilson wrote that relative to New Castle's ordinance of 1898, prescribed that the tax received by the treasurer be paid over to the firemen's relief association.

Powerful Cutter Nabbed By Agent

Powerful Cutter, One Of Fleet Of Vessels Seized In Gigantic Rum Ring Raid

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—The powerful 60-foot cutter, Winnie Estelle, powered with four Liberty Motors was towed into port here Friday. U. S. operatives charge it is one of the vessels of the rum fleet owned by members of a huge Philadelphia rum ring.

The captain and crew of the ship were kept aboard as prisoners. They are said to be Jack Bishop, chief radio operator of the rum syndicate, Ritchie Roe, admiral of the fleet and one of the heads of the rum clique, and several seamen.

PREDICTS 500 MILE SPEED

(International News Service)

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—Maj. Jimmy Doolittle, the famous flyer, believes airplanes will attain a speed of 500 miles per hour. The famous pilot made this prediction in commenting on the feat of Lieut. G. H. Stainforth of the British Air service, who flew 381.1 miles per hour at Calshot, England. "There is no limit to speed in the air," Doolittle said. "If aviation progresses at the present rate, we may look forward to attaining air speeds of 500 miles an hour in the future. Speed will be increased as airplane design is improved, together with increases in power and decrease in weight of airplane engines."

CITY HAS NO HEAD UNTIL NOVEMBER 10

LARAMIE, Wyo., Oct. 17—Laramie will be without a city government until a special election is held on Nov. 10. The recent resignation of two members and the death of a third reduced the membership of the city council to a point where a quorum could not be mustered. the special election will also decide the fate of a proposed $37,000bond issue to raise money with which to relieve unemployment.

Chicago Points To Record Of Presidencies

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—If history means anything in politics, Chicago has a good chance of landing either the Republican or Democratic national presidential conventions, or both, next year.

"The ballot box shows that candidates selected here have a three to one chance of election," said Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the bi-partisan citizens' committee chosen by the Chamber of Commerce to bring the two sessions here.

Since 1860, nine of fourteen major party candidates nominated in Chicago have been elected. Headed by Abraham Lincoln, the list of presidents, whose path to the White House started in the convention halls of Chicago, has included Grant, Garfield, Cleveland, who was elected twice, Harrison, Roosevelt, Taft and Harding.

The five unsuccessful presidential candidates nominated in Chicago are McClellan, Blaine, Taft in 1912, Hughes and Bryan. Blaine was beaten by Cleveland, another Chicago nominee, both parties meeting here in 1884.

Chicago has not had a major party convention since Harding was nominated eleven years ago. Before that time Chicago averaged a Republican or Democratic convention every four years. Ten sessions were supplied by the Republicans and four by the Democrats. In all but six presidential years since 1860 Chicago has been host to one or both parties.

Minor parties, however, have been making their base in Chicago since 1880. Since that time fourteen such gatherings have been held here. These included Progressive, Prohibition, Farmer-Labor, Single-tax, Socialist, Independence and Greenback parties.

Active Drivers Best Autoists

One Driver Out Of Three Will Have Accident In Four Years

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 17.—One motor car driver out of each three will have an accident during four years of driving, according to a research at Ohio State University.

The best drivers, it was found, are the most active individuals, tending to lend support to a claim that men drive better than women.

The tests, under auspices of the National Research Council, will be used in formulation of model statutes for licensing drivers. The ideal aimed at, it was pointed out, is elimination of accidents and increase of the flow of traffic.

Visual defects were found not an important factor, while nervousness was said to be the major cause.

Fast drivers escape accidents in many instances by clearing congested areas more rapidly than slow drivers. It was found that 80 percent of accidents occur in clear, dry weather.

Needlework Guild Hopes For Record

Believe Ingathering On November 5 And 6 Will Be Largest Ever

Last November the Needlework Guild had over 5000 garments of various kinds at its Ingathering in the Castleton. This year the Ingathering will be held on November 5 and 6 and the Guild officers are hoping that the response will be even greater.

There is a need for stockings, a large need. School children of the city will wear out thousands of pairs of stockings before the summer sun comes in and contributors are asked to remember this dire need.

Another thing that is always useful is underwear. Underwear of all sizes will be needed this winter, especially children's sizes. Bloomers for little girls will be needed also. It is asked that contributors do not send in towels as the need for the more useful articles is great.

To be a member of the Needlework Guild it is only necessary to contribute two articles of clothing. There are no dues and all the materials contributed will go directly to the people who need them.
